Eagles oust Pickerington

GIRLS REGIONALS

COLUMBUS (AP) — Brandie Hoskins scored 18 points and rallied Dayton Chaminade-Julienne from an 11-point first-half deficit as the Eagles beat Pickerington 40-35 in a Division I regional championship yesterday.

Hoskins hit two 3-pointers and had 10 points in the third quarter as Chaminade-Julienne (24-2) came back from a 21-16 halftime deficit to tie the game at 30.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Hoskins blocked a shot and got the rebound and Ashley Goldsberry then hit a 3-pointer to give the Eagles their first lead, 33-30.

Cin. Wyoming 54,
Versailles 28

VANDALIA — Maria McCarthy scored 19 points and Jenni McGee had 12 points as Wyoming beat Versailles in a Division III regional championship.

JR. HIGH WRESTLING

Whitney's Dan Mitchell is Lorain County's first junior high state wrestling champion. Mitchell, an eighth grader finishes his two years undefeated with a 36-0 record in the 96-pound division. Mitchell defeated New London's Zack Sendelbach in the first round with a pin in one minute. In the second round, Mitchell pinned Jeremy Depoy of Bradford in 56 seconds. In the semi finals, Mitchell defeated the defending state champion, Kyle Shackle of North Canton in an 8-0 decision. In the finals, Mitchell defeated Clay Tucker of Martins Ferry, 6-5.

GANSEY

second quarter alone, Gansey totaled 12 of his team's 18 points. He outscored Avon Lake's entire squad in the second, 12-11.

"I was happy with the first half, especially the first quarter when Mike (Gansey) wasn't involved," Avon Lake coach Dave Olinger said. "But things just got away from us in the second half and it snowballed from there."

The Shoremen committed two costly turnovers to start the third quarter. Gansey converted one of Avon Lake's miscues on a layup, while teammate Armando Flores added a jumper. The Bulldogs extended their lead to 29-24 while the Shoremen refused to let the game slip away.

In the final minutes of the third quarter, Avon Lake cut Falls' lead to three points (35-32). Justin Booher had a pair of jumpers for the Shoremen, Port added a shot inside and Brian Ingleright hit two free throws.

But for each Avon Lake run, the Bulldogs had a response. They closed the third with a 4-0 run for a 39-32 lead going into the final quarter.

"We had a ton of turnovers in the second half and that killed us," said Port, who had a game-high 15 rebounds (including 10 defensively) and a team-high 21 points. "Our turnovers let them get back into the game.

"Things just didn't work for us in the second half. They played better and it showed."

Port hit a pair of 3-pointers in the fourth quarter to help cut the Bulldogs' lead to seven points (50-43) with three minutes left. But that was as close as the Shoremen came to catching the 'Dogs, who closed the game with a 14-4 run.

"A few weeks ago when we played them (Avon Lake), they didn't play zone against us, but we expected it tonight," said Olmsted Falls coach Pat Donahue, whose team advanced to the regional semifinals on Wednesday at Cleveland State University. "We executed as well as we would have liked against their zone."

In the first quarter, the Shoremen outscored Falls, 13-7. Port led his team in the first with five points. Avon Lake shot 5-of-11 from the field while the 'Dogs went 3-of-12 during the first quarter.

Along with Port, Avon Lake was led in scoring by senior guards Ingleright (13 points) and Booher (nine).

"We just got beat by a better team tonight," said Ingleright, whose squad won the district championship last season (57-47) against Olmsted Falls and advanced to the regional finals. "We had a lot of goals that didn't get accomplished this season and that hurts."

Olmsted Falls has won 13 consecutive games. The 'Dogs last loss was to Avon Lake (72-70) in January when Ingleright drained a layup with two seconds left to secure a win. In the two team's following meeting in February, the 'Dogs got revenge and beat their league foes (81-72) to secure the SWC title outright.

"Overall, I think we had a good year," Olinger said. "I'm pretty happy with the year, but I'm not happy with this game."

LESSON

never saw before.

"But I think if we would've stayed focused and not rushed things, we still could've executed in it. But we panicked, we missed shots ... when you get down by 15, it's tough to come back."

Especially when the Wildcats — already decidedly undersized — were forced to play without their tallest player in Jessica Fraley.

MORNING JOURNAL/DOUGLAS A. KHRENOVSKY

Jessica Fraley, left, of Keystone is greeted by teammates after the team lost to Patrick Henry 43-15 during a Division III regional final basketball game at Lexington High School yesterday.

Fraley, who led Keystone with five points, picked up her second foul with 2:29 left in the first quarter. By then it was 12-0. She didn't return until the final seconds of the first half.

Keystone finished the game 6-of-41 from the field and turned the ball over 22 times, compared to Patrick Henry's 12.

Brandy Terry, who finished with just two points from the foul line, said the players weren't as loose yesterday as they were before Wednesday night's semifinal.

"The name of the game is the regional final," she said. "But still our attitude was just to have fun."

Freshman Amanda Terry had all four of Keystone's first-half points, the first coming on a jumper early in the second quarter and the second basket on a jumper with just over two minutes left in the half.

By then the Patriots had built a 25-4 lead and started making plans for Columbus.

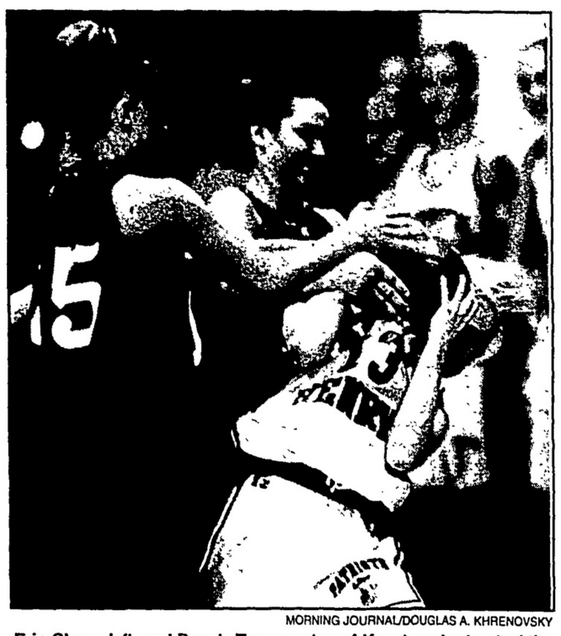

"We knew this was a good team," Brandy Terry said. "Our shots just didn't fall.

"Our goal was to keep them under 50 points and we accomplished that, but our offense just wasn't working."

Scott Terry made the goal of holding the Patriots under 50 as the game was progressing and slowly getting out of hand.

"I'm proud of the girls' defensive effort," he said. "Only two teams held them under 50 points this year, and we were one of them.

"This was a learning experience and that's good. We needed it. We learned an awful lot today."

GOLF ROUNDUP

Parnevik maintains lead after calm day at Honda

CORAL SPRINGS, Fla. (AP) — Heron Bay's best defender took the day off yesterday. Jesper Parnevik, along with the rest of the field, took advantage.

On a rare, windless day when the flags didn't sway unless they were being taken out of the holes, the only significant movement at the Honda Classic was on the leaderboard.

Parnevik shot a 6-under-par 66 in the third round to retain a three-shot lead at 18 under, breaking J.P. Hayes' 54-hole tournament record of 200 set last year. Mark Calcavecchia (66) was 15 under, followed by Geoff Oglivy (65) and Dan Forsman (65) at 14 under.

"Three shots is not as big as it sounds," Parnevik said.

Through nine tournaments this season, six winners have come from behind on the final day.

Lee Janzen tied the course record with a 64 but was five strokes back along with John Daly, who shot a 67. Forsman started the day in a 13-way tie for ninth place, while Janzen and Forsman were deadlocked in 29th.

"It was a completely different golf course today," Oglivy said. "It was there for the taking."

And nearly everyone did. Only two players, Stephen Ames and Gabriel Hjertstedt, were over par. Both shot 73.

Ty Tryon, a 16-year-old high school sophomore who became the second youngest player to make the cut at a PGA Tour event, shot a 2-under 70 and was 6 under (tied for 51st) heading into the final round. "I just don't want it to end," Tryon said.

LPGA Welch's-Circle K

TUCSON, Ariz. — Annika Sorenstam took everything the Randolph Park North course would give her during a windy third round at the Welch's-Circle K Championship — and needed it.

The defending champion shot a 5-under-par 67, enough for a record 54-hole total of 16-under 200 and a two-shot lead on Se Ri Pak.

First- and second-round leader Jen Hanna wilted under the pressure of the hard greens, wind gusts to 32 mph and a head-to-head pairing with Sorenstam, but managed two birdies on the back nine to shoot 72 and finish third, three shots off the lead.

Dottie Pepper, the 1995 champion, was alone at 204, with Laura Diaz, Dorothy Delasin and Deb Richard at 205.

Women's Australian Open

MELBOURNE, Australia — Sophie Gustafson went eagle-birdie-eagle to close her round, surging past defending champion Karrie Webb to take a four-stroke lead entering the last day of the Australian Open.

The Swede was trailing Webb by one stroke before going 5 under for the last three holes, leaving her with a 66 and a 205 total after three rounds.

Florida Classic

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — John Patterson fired a 7-under 64 for a one-stroke lead after three rounds of the Florida Classic, the season-opening event on the Buy.com Tour.

Patterson had nine birdies en route to a three-round total of 11-under 202.

SBC Senior PGA Classic

SANTA CLARITA, Calif. — Larry Nelson's 8-under-par 64 tied the course record and moved him into a tie with Jim Colbert for the lead in the SBC Senior PGA Classic.

Colbert finished the round with a 67. The duo was at 10-under 134 and will play together in today's final round over the par-72 course.

Qatar Masters

DOHA, Qatar — Angel Cabrera of Argentina shot a 5-under-par 67 to share a one-stroke lead with Robert Karlsson of Sweden entering the last round of the Qatar Masters.

Koepp scores 10 in B-W loss

BEREA — Lorain Catholic graduate Holly Koepp scored 10 points and recorded eight rebounds, but it wasn't enough as Baldwin-Wallace lost to Ohio Wesleyan, 66-64, in the "Elite Eight" round of the NCAA Tournament last night.

Koepp, who was third in scoring for Baldwin-Wallace this season with 11.4 points per game, went 4-of-9 from the floor and 2-of-2 from the foul line against Wesleyan for 10 points.

Her eight boards was a team-high.

With the loss, Balwin-Wallace finishes its season with a 27-3 record.
