BOYS BASKETBALL

James dominates, draws Kobe Bryant comparisons

E.L. Rogers
Plain Dealer Reporter

ST. VINCENT-ST. MARY	70
GERMANTOWN	64

Want to read some jaw-dropping stuff? Fair enough.

Jim Fenerty is the head basketball coach at Germantown Academy in Pennsylvania. He saw Kobe Bryant play his senior year of high school. He saw LeBron James — a junior at St. Vincent-St. Mary — play against his team last night in Akron.

Now, this is the comparison Fenerty made after SVSM pulled out a 70-64 win in this battle of two nationally ranked teams:

"LeBron is the best player we've ever played against," Fenerty said. "LeBron is a better shooter than Kobe when Kobe was a senior, and LeBron is a lot stronger than Kobe at this stage. Right now, he's a better overall player than Kobe when Kobe was a senior. I think Kobe was a better ballhandler at this stage, but that's not to say LeBron is a bad ballhandler, because he's not."

Good heavens.

Then again, after what Fenerty saw last night, it's little wonder he's not building a totem pole in James' honor. Was it James' 38 points that convinced Fenerty? Was it the 16 rebounds? Maybe it was the five dunks?

"The only thing bad I have to say about LeBron is he should've taken my advice; I told him to skip his junior and senior years and go pro," Fenerty said. "He didn't have to stick around and play us. C'mon, now, that was a joke."

Say one thing for Fenerty, he's a gracious loser. He knew this contest would be a toss-up, and he knew the Irish (2-0) were revved up to cook in front of the home crowd. SVSM set the tone in the first quarter, when it grabbed leads of 14-7 and 21-11 en route to a 23-13 cushion going into the second period.

"Yeah, we looked pretty good tonight, but we didn't do a very good job with our free throws," said SVSM coach Dru Joyce, whose team made 10 of 23 free throws. "That's why they're called free throws; we've got to make 'em. You better believe we will be working on free throws this week in practice."

Germantown (0-1) made it interesting late in the game. SVSM held a 55-44 lead going into the fourth quarter, but Germantown pulled within 59-54 with four minutes left. The Irish reopened a 67-56 lead with one minute remaining. When Germantown closed within 68-64 with 23 seconds left on a 3-pointer from the top of the key, James closed the scoring with his fifth dunk.

Case closed.

"Hey, these kids are under a lot of pressure," Joyce said. "I feel for these kids because of the pressure they're under. LeBron is only a junior, and yet he's gotta come out and perform every night in front of these big crowds. There were five thousand people here tonight who came to check out LeBron, just to see if he does everything that they read about him in the paper."

Players of the Week: It's that time again

Starting today from noon to 2 p.m., The Plain Dealer will accept coaches' nominations for Players of the Week in winter sports. This week, nominations will be accepted only for boys and girls swimming, girls basketball and hockey.

We have one number to call for the seven-county coverage area: 800-388-4370. If you want to pay for the call, dial 216-999-4370. Throughout the winter season, we'll have staffers on hand from noon to 2 Sundays to take coaches' nominations.
