Royals set mark with 100

NORTH RIDGEVILLE — Lake Ridge Academy scored the most points in school history, routing South Ridge Christian 103-46 in a non-conference game Friday evening.

Paul Hurd led the Royals with 17 points, nine rebounds and seven steals. Ed Buehner also scored 17 for Lake Ridge and Matt Maczuzak added 16.

Lake Ridge (4-3) is idle until a Jan. 4 visit to Open Door.

WRESTLING MATCH?: Avon Lake's Charlie Culp battles with Fairview's Dave Phillips for a rebound as Shoremen Steve Welch (44) and Al Luznar look on.

AVON LAKE — Avon Lake didn't brandish its three-point guns until the final quarter Friday night, but once the Shoremen broke them out, they wouldn't put them away.

Greeting visiting Fairview with four consecutive three-pointers at the start of the fourth quarter, Avon Lake took the lead and held on down the stretch for a 67-66 win that gave first-year head coach Ron Kryc his first Southwestern Conference victory.

"Our game plan initially was to pound it inside," said Kryc, whose Shoremen moved to 2-3 overall and 1-1 in the SWC. "We figured the inside stuff would open up our outside shooting."

Boy, did it ever. With the Shoremen trailing 50-47, sophomore Ryan King began the long-range barrage with a bomb that tied it with 6:35 remaining.

King would strike again a minute later to give Avon Lake the lead 53-52, before Rick Strauch and Frank Balogh got in on the fun, sticking treys of their own that left the Shoremen in front 59-59 with three minutes

"Ryan (King) hit some big ones," said Kryc of his 5-foot-9 guard, who scored all 10 of his points in the fourth period. "For a sophomore to hit shots like that really showed some composure."

So did the rest of the Shoremen as the 1-4 Warriors made a last grasp effort at stealing a victory.

After King made one of two from the foul line to put A.L. in front 65-62 with 51 seconds on the clock, Fairview's Ryan Smith pulled his team to within a point on an acrobatic driving layup.

Strauch was perfect from the line on Avon Lake's next possession, and when Fairview's Bobby Rosol came up short from three-point land, the Shoremen had staved off the comeback bid.

"I thought that three at the end was going in," said Kryc. "It was not an easy game. Fairview is not the Fairview of old. It used to be that you could look at the schedule at the beginning of the season and count two wins up against them, but not any more. They've got some good players."

The first half was a virtual foul-fest with 30 infractions whistled in the opening 16 minutes, forcing two starters from each team to the bench with three fouls before intermission.

Fairview came out of it with a 36-34 advantage on a Smith put-back with two ticks on the clock.

In the midst of all the fouls and a combined 23 turnovers were 10 lead changes with the final one coming on a Smith offensive rebound.

Rosol and Fairview point guard Mike Busanus split game-high scoring honors with 17 apiece, while Strauch led the Shoremen with 16.

Balogh, King and big man Charlie Culp were also in double figures for Avon Lake with 10.

The Shoremen and Warriors are back in action tonight, with Avon Lake traveling to Amherst, while Fairview hosts winless Bay.

Falls' Schaefer gets milestone

Bulldogs handle Rocky River

OLMSTED FALLS — Olmsted Falls coach Pat Donahue was worried that with Tim Schaefer entering Friday night's contest against Rocky River with 999 career points the All-Southwestern Conference center would have trouble scoring.

He did, but only for about 10 seconds.

Schaefer got his milestone points on a turn-around jumper on Falls' first possession en route to a game-high 28 in the Bulldogs' 59-49 victory.

"Schaefer's good. He's so big and strong, and we just didn't have an answer for him," said Pirates (4-1, 2-1) coach Jim Rucki. "It seemed like he had all their points."

Rucki had good reason for thinking that as the 6-foot-8 center scored 18 of Falls' (5-0, 3-0) 26 first-half points without missing a field goal.

The teams traded punches throughout the first half with Falls taking a 26-25 lead into the locker room.

The Pirates had a chance to move ahead in the third quarter when an elbow split open Schaefer's bottom lip and he was forced to the bench for a couple of minutes. But a 10-1 River run went for nought as the Bulldogs scrambled to tie the game at 37-37 after three quarters.

The Pirates' third-quarter cold shooting continued into the final quarter as River missed its first eight field-goal attempts while the Bulldogs moved out to a 42-37 lead.

occurred when River's Sean Kennedy had a chance to cut into the lead as he stepped to the free-throw line for a one-and-one situation with 5:32 remaining.

Kennedy airballed his attempt, however, and when the Pirates missed a lay-up on their next possession they fell behind 46-39 and never got close again.

River's Connell Dolan finally broke through for a couple of three-point field goals with less than two minutes to play, but it was too little too late.

"We had our chances," Rucki said. "We missed too many shots and made too many mistakes. And Olmsted Falls made the plays down the stretch."

The victory was Falls' 19th consecutive in the Southwestern Conference.

"I think one of the things this team does is wear people down," explained Donahue. "If you match up against us with smaller players, these players are so darned strong that it's going to take it toll."

Olmsted Falls hosts North Olmsted tonight, while Rocky River is visited by Westlake.

Amherst rallies to beat up Bay

BAY VILLAGE — Amherst fell behind 11-4 early but then caught fire and rolled past Bay, 47-24 Friday night in a Southwestern Conference boys basketball game.

The Comets made 10 three-pointers, including Joe Azok's four.

Ray Deidrick had 24 points to lead Amherst, with Azok adding 21.

Bay got 14 points from Matt Murphy.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

NORTH RIDGEVILLE coach Dan Rademaker said that Tuesday's loss to Keystone was his team's worst performance of the season.

"We've been in almost every game," he said. "But we just did not play well tonight and I thought Keystone played pretty good basketball. They busted us pretty good on the boards."

EHS FACULTY manager Rick Wegner got out the broom Tuesday night. To sweep up the remains of EHS' victory? No way. Wegner had to help adjust the south rim on Elyria's basket following Danny Martin's thunderous dunk rebound near the end of the first half.

Westlake dismantles North Olmsted

WESTLAKE — Don't believe your eyes.

"That team is going to win some games, believe me," Westlake coach Art Daniels said after watching his Demons dismantle North Olmsted, 51-25, in a Southwestern Conference game Friday night.

"We're a better team than that," North Olmsted coach Tim Schmotzer said after witnessing his Eagles hit only a dozen of 49 field-goal tries, including 7-of-37 shooting through the first three quarters.

"I thought we were coming together offensively," Schmotzer said. "What happens is we play Westlake early in the season every year, they change up their defenses on us and it bothers us. The result isn't pretty basketball, and I'm as much to blame as the kids for not having them prepared."

Daniels also credited defense. "That's where it started," he said, "on the defensive end. We were more aggressive and we took care of the boards. That was one of my concerns with this game — the offensive and defensive rebounding."

Chad Armstrong led Westlake (4-2 overall, 3-0 SWC) with 16 points, canning seven of eight field-goal shots, and eight rebounds. Tasir Yamin landed in double figures for the Demons with 11.

"Our two senior starters from last year (Armstrong and Yamin) led us tonight and showed us what we had to do to win," Daniels said. "The kids did a great job of recovering from a poor showing Saturday night (81-32 loss to Lakewood). It left a bad taste in their mouths."

The Demons hit 20 of 44 fielders and held a 26-22 rebounding edge.

"Westlake beat us in every phase of the game," Schmotzer said, "including beating us to the ball. They outthrust us, and we take pride in never being outthrust."

Westlake broke away from a 6-4 lead with seven unanswered points. Another seven-point spree in the second quarter made the score 22-8 and the Demons were never challenged again. The lead reached as many as 28 points late in fourth quarter.

North Olmsted is now 3-3 in all games and 2-1 in the conference.
