

John Marshall (11-10), which was seeded fourth, closed to 29-19 on a 3-pointer by senior point guard Rob Halford and trailed, 33-24, at halftime after senior guard-forward Terrance Williams scored on a breakaway layup.

But the Bees, who have won 15 of their last 16 games, including 12 in a row, picked up their first victory in the series with a soft jumper by sophomore guard Ryan Stefanski and two free throws by senior forward Brad Smith extended Breckville's lead to 40-26 with 5:52 left in the fourth quarter. The Bees scored with 24 points and Plowden paced the layovers with 21 points.
