Cleveland Heights wins matchup of top teams

BOYS DIVISION I

It was everything a game matching the area's top two teams should be.

The Cleveland Heights Tigers and the Glenville Tarblooders, ranked 1-2 in The Plain Dealer's final Top 25 poll, left it all on the court yesterday as Cleveland Heights held off Glenville, 88-81, in a boys Division I district championship game in Cleveland South High School.

Cleveland Heights, the top-ranked team in the state by the Associated Press, will take a 22-1 record into Wednesday night's regional semifinals in Cleveland State's Convocation Center. The Tigers will face Lake Erie League rival Valley Forge (13-11) at 8 p.m. Cleveland Heights defeated Valley Forge twice during the regular season.

"They got everything they wanted to see, and more," said Tigers coach Jim Cappelletti, referring to the standing-room crowd of more than 1,800. "What a tremendous game. Glenville ranks right up there with anybody we've played this season. They have great talent and tremendous depth."

The same can be said of Cleveland Heights.

The Tigers, who extended their winning streak to 22, turned to the rebounding of sophomore center Theo Dixon and senior forward Larry Moore in building a 54-43 lead early in the second half.

But Glenville (21-2), whose 17-game winning streak was snapped, closed to 56-51 on a 3-pointer by sophomore forward Charles Edward Jackson and a tip-in by senior center Anthony Gilmore. The Tarblooders, champions of the Senate Athletic League, tied the score at 59 on a 3-pointer by junior forward Malcolm Rose and took a 62-61 lead on a baseline jumper by sophomore guard Tavares Bolden. Rose had five of Glenville's 10 3-pointers.

After Cleveland Heights regained the lead, 64-62, on a 3-pointer by Dixon, Glenville answered with a soft jumper and a sweeping hook by Gilmore.

Cleveland Heights, champion of the Lake Erie League's Lake Division, tied the scored at 66 on a putback by Moore, and it stayed that way entering the fourth quarter.

"Our kids just have the attitude that they are going to win," Cappelletti said.

That confidence was tested in the final three minutes after the Tigers moved to an 82-73 lead on a layup by senior forward Keith Allen, a free throw by junior guard Jeremy Holmes and a turnaround jumper by Moore.

Glenville, which lost to Cleveland Heights, 93-62, in last year's district final at South, wouldn't go away. The Tarblooders cut the deficit to 82-81 on a putback by Gilmore and a layup by sophomore guard Christopher Chambers off a steal and an assist by senior guard/forward Derrick Davis.

"We like to run and shoot," said Glenville coach James O'Neal Johnson. "That's our style. But today, they just ran a little faster and shot a little better."

After Glenville missed a shot from close range that would have given the Tarblooders a one-point lead, a jump ball occurred under the Glenville basket. Cleveland Heights was awarded possession on the alternate rule, and Tigers All-Ohio senior guard Damon Stringer hit both ends of a one-and-one with 28 seconds left.

Trailing, 84-81, Glenville got off a 3-point attempt by Chambers that bounced hard off the rim, and Cleveland Heights sealed the victory on two free throws by Dixon with seven seconds remaining.

"Glenville is as good as anybody in the area, so we knew we had to step it up today," said Allen, whose inside scoring and offensive rebounding led the Tigers to a 50-43 lead by halftime. "Theo [Dixon], Larry [Moore] and me just try to go all out and crash the boards. Yeah, that's where the points are."

Led by Stringer with 22 points and Dixon with 21, Cleveland Heights finished with five players in double figures. Gilmore, with 19 points, led four Tarblooders in double figures.

VASJ wins in overtime

Davis, Scott lead 98-91 victory over Benedictine

BOYS DIVISION II

Villa Angela-St. Joseph remains the defending Division II boys state champion. Barely.

"We're going to have to work hard in practice, because we can't have another one like this one," VASJ center Jerome Davis said after he and teammate Bernard Scott combined for 64 points as the Vikings defeated Benedictine in overtime, 98-91, in a district championship game last night at Madison.

"If we have another one like this, I'm going to have a heart attack."

The first-seeded Vikings (18-5), the state's fifth-ranked team, will play Twinsburg in a regional semifinal Tuesday night at The University of Akron.

Benedictine (17-7) had defeated second-seeded Conneaut, the state's second-ranked team, in a semifinal game Thursday. The Bengals were led by forwards Kevin Coffey and Tim Cheatwood with 16 points apiece. Coffey, though, fouled out with 1:26 left in regulation, and Cheatwood followed him to the sideline with his fifth foul 39 seconds later.

"They beat us on the boards, which I was afraid might happen, and then we got in foul trouble," Benedictine coach Frank Novak said.

VASJ outscored Benedictine, 16-9, in the overtime. Davis, a 6-6 junior, got seven of his 30 points and four of his 10 rebounds. Scott, a 5-11 junior guard, scored seven of his 30 points.

Twice Davis scored baskets in overtime off the rebound of his own missed shot.

"With [Coffey and Cheatwood] out of the game, two of their biggest guys, we felt we could totally dominate inside," Davis said.

Benedictine went on a 17-6 run during the middle of the second half to lead, 66-58, with 7:40 left. Marty Williams sparked the Bengals' rally with two 3-point shots.

"We had them down eight points, and I thought we maybe had the ballgame," Novak said.

Scott's 3-point shot and four points by Davis put VASJ ahead, 67-66. Coffey answered with six quick points, and Cheatwood had four, as Benedictine surged to an 80-76 lead with 1:22 left.

Six straight Vikings points, coming on a free throw by Scott, two by Davis, and a three-point play by Dale Thomas, put VASJ ahead, 82-80, with 47 seconds to go.

Benedictine's Kris Little forced the overtime when he made a layup with 31 seconds remaining.

Benedictine shot 58 percent from the field; VASJ made 52 percent of its field-goal attempts. The Vikings, though, took 42 foul shots, and made 29; Benedictine went 13-of-15 from the line. VASJ outrebounded Benedictine, 35-27, including 8-4 in the overtime.

"This has to be a classic," VASJ coach Tedd Kwasniak said. "There were two schools out there with a lot of pride, knocking each other out. This was what high school sports is all about."

Dale Thomas scored 15 points for the Vikings, and Scheller Harrison had 12 before fouling out. Bob Salem, Mike Campofredano and Mike Heben scored 14, 13 and 12 points, respectively, for the Bengals.

The game was delayed for 75 minutes in the second half, after VASJ's Thomas shattered a glass backboard on a dunk. Both teams went to their locker rooms as nearly 20 men worked to replace the ruined backboard.

Benedictine led, 60-58, with 58 seconds left in the third quarter, when Thomas, a 6-5 junior center, went down the lane and hammered in a missed shot by Scott.

Thomas also shattered a backboard while playing at an AAU tournament last summer in Zanesville.

St. Vincent-St. Mary rocks Brookfield in title quest

GIRLS DIVISION III

ALLIANCE — The St. Vincent-St. Mary basketball team took its first step on the road to the Final Four 125 days ago today.

That's what coach Nancy Beatty told her team after the first day of practice.

"I'll never forget that," said forward Jaime Myher, one of three seniors on the team. "It was November 7th. We were so psyched."

My, how time flies when you're having fun.

The Irish have maintained all season that their smiling eyes were focused on winning the Division III state championship, and yesterday they got to within two victories of that title by routing Brookfield, 62-34, in the regional championship game in the Timken Physical Education Building at Mount Union College.

SVSM will take a 25-1 record to Ohio State's St. John Arena, where it will play Unioto on Friday at 9 p.m. in a state semifinal game that couldn't have been scripted any better.

What better team to play on St. Patrick's Day than the Fighting Irish of St. Vincent-St. Mary?

SVSM, which will play in the Final Four for the fourth time in school history and for the second time in the last three years under Beatty, did not prolong the suspense yesterday.

Unlike its 48-46 semifinal victory over Doylestown Chippewa on Wednesday, SVSM put this one away early.

Playing with an intensity that would have melted snow, the Irish outscored the Warriors, 11-3, in the first four minutes. They had a 20-5 lead at the end of the first quarter, and a 3-point basket with six seconds remaining by junior Kelly Dyer made it 33-12 at the half.

"Our shifting on defense was great," said Beatty, whose teams have gone 85-12 in her five seasons. "The kids were talking the whole time, and they knew where the ball was. Our defense generates our offense and it makes things flow a little easier."

Beatty preached defense to her team in preparing for Brookfield, which is near the Ohio-Pennsylvania border.

"Their defense took us out of our game," said Brookfield senior Gina Kirila. "They got off to that good start, and it just kind of snowballed."

While the defense helped force 19 turnovers and held Brookfield to 13 field goals, SVSM's offense was characteristically well-balanced.

Dyer had 14 points and eight rebounds. Senior Kim Koenig had 13 points and five rebounds and point guard Thomeshia Cammon had 10 rebounds and four assists. Perhaps more importantly, she committed just one turnover. Super sub, junior Jamie Zwisler, came off the bench to score 10 points and make five steals.

Brookfield coach Tim Filipovich, whose team finished at 21-4, said his Warriors might have been intimidated.

"You might say that," he said. "I thought we were a little tentative."

SVSM's press and physical style of play can do that.

"I thought we tried to be too precise against Doylestown," said Myher, who finished with nine points and four rebounds and will be making her second trip to Columbus as a regular. "Today, it just flowed."

Koenig, whose 13 points gave her 28 in SVSM's last two games, said: "I thought getting off to the early lead just put us more at ease."
