Falls shower dampens Avon Lake

Steve Byrne
The Chronicle-Telegram

AVON LAKE — It rained 3-pointers for Olmsted Falls in the last four minutes of the second quarter, then it rained defense in the third period

The combination was too tough for Avon Lake, which dropped a 61-52 decision to the Bulldogs in Southwestern Conference play

Falls (7-2 overall, 2-2 SWC) canned five 3-point baskets in the latter half of the second frame Four of them were by Matt Tabar, who made seven for the evening

But it was the third quarter defense that allowed the Bulldogs to fashion a comfortable lead going into the final period. Despite scoring only 11 points themselves, the Bulldogs were able to stretch a four point halftime advantage to 11 points with eight minutes remaining by limiting the Shoremen to 2 for 11 field goal shooting in the third.

"We didn't play defense last week (in a loss to North Olmsted)," OF coach Pat Donahue said. "We made a point of discussing it this week. North scored easy baskets against us, and not even in transition. They got them against a half-court offense

"What helped us tonight was we were able to shuffle players in and out to keep everybody fresh."

The Bulldogs denied Avon Lake (6-4, 2-2 SWC) everything in the middle while at the same time holding down Sean Deasy, the Shoremen's best outside threat. Deasy scored 12 points in the first half, but managed only a pair at the free throw line in the last two periods

"I'm not disappointed with our defense," Avon Lake coach Dick Deasy said. "We ran into a couple of hot shooters, but our offense is really struggling and looking totally out of sync When you miss as many layups and easy shots as we missed, any defense is going to look great."

The Falls offense had Avon Lake's defense looking pretty great for the first few minutes of the second quarter The Bulldogs, who led by as many as seven points in the opening frame, missed their first nine attempts from the field before Tabar got hot. A 3-pointer by Tim Matus gave Falls the lead for good, 34-33 with 43 seconds to go before halftime

"We were trying not to leave him (Tabar) alone," Deasy said. "But they have a couple of good outside shooters, and when they're hot we have to be covering everybody and sometimes we lose someone"

The Bulldogs slowly stretched the lead to as many as 15 points in the first 10 minutes of the second half Avon Lake could get no closer than nine from there

Tabar finished with 23 points Tim Schaefer pulled in 12 rebounds for the Bulldogs, who outrebounded the Shoremen 30-22.

Crunch wins with feet

Chris Freeman
The Chronicle-Telegram

CLEVELAND — The last time the Cleveland Crunch and the St. Louis Ambush met, there was a brawl in the final seconds of the game

Fans expecting a resumption of the slugfest Friday night in Cleveland must have been surprised

The Crunch came out and showed the indoor equivalent of Brazil's "beautiful game" for three quarters, gaining 12-2 and 14-1 leads, and holding on for a 16-9 triumph.

The game featured the top two teams in the NPSL, with the Crunch moving to 14-6 on the year and St. Louis falling to 14-4

It was the first win for Cleveland against St. Louis in three tries this year. The Crunch beat the Ambush 3-1 to win the NPSL title last season

"We had to show them," said Crunch midfielder Tommy Tanner "They've never beat us at our place yet, seven in a row So if we meet them in the finals again, I think that's a big factor"

Both sides said they didn't think the game would get ugly like the previous meeting.

"I think both teams are very professional," said Crunch defender Tim Tyma "I think it was a confrontation between two players and the rest of the team joined in because it was their teammates I think it was forgotten an hour after the incident."

Said St Louis player coach Daryl Doran, "Whenever something happens like that, usually the very next rematch the media makes more out of it than it is"
