PREP BASKETBALL NOTEBOOK

MICHAEL YOUNG the basketball players is slimmer and trimmer than was Michael Young the football player.

As a 6-foot-7 lineman for the Oberlin football team, Young weighed in at 310 pounds. These days he fits the scales at 280 pounds.

Slimmer and trimmer, maybe, but Young is still a mountain of a man under the basket. Friday night against visiting Avon, Young scored eight of Oberlin's first 10 points, all after taking lob passes under the basket against the Eagle zone defense. After he got two easy scores that way, the third lob pass took a little longer to produce the basket. Young missed his first layup attempt, got the rebound and missed the second shot, then missed two more times before finally putting the ball in the basket on the fifth try. The next time he got a lob pass it only took him three shots to make a basket.

Young not only scored eight of his team's first 10 points, he also took 10 of the Indians' first 11 shots from the field.

Avon also had trouble on put-back attempts. On one possession in the first quarter, the Eagles missed five straight rebound attempts and never did get the basket as Oberlin finally pulled down the defensive rebound.

AREA COLLEGE ROUNDUP

Earlham bounces Oberlin women

RICHMOND, Ind. — Earlham College outbounced the Oberlin Yeowomen 50-23 Saturday and walked away with a 57-39 win in North Coast Athletic Conference women's basketball play.

Despite holding the Quakers to 27 percent shooting in the first half, the Yeowomen, who shot 43 percent, were down 21-18.

Lara Singer led Earlham (8-12 overall, 5-10 NCAC) with 17 points and 23 rebounds. Freshman standout Carrie Losneck scored 14 points to lead Oberlin (3-17 overall, 1-12 NCAC).

B-W track teams both finish first

BEREA — Baldwin-Wallace's men's and women's tracks teams placed first among seven schools at the Yellow Jackets' annual B-W Team Meet Saturday.

B-W sophomore Tina Lokar, a Westlake High graduate, won the 1,500-meter run with a time of 4:58.10. The Lady Yellow Jackets scored 173.5 points and won four events.

The Baldwin-Wallace men won three events and scored 120 points.

Heidelberg tops B-W women

TIFFIN — Western Reserve High graduate Vicky Mahl scored a game-high 26 points and pulled down a game-high 23 rebounds to lead Heidelberg to a 69-57 win over Baldwin-Wallace Saturday in Ohio Athletic Conference women's basketball.

John Carroll women edge Muskingum

UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS — Sue Zidanic scored 14 points to lead John Carroll to a 59-57 win over visiting Muskingum in Ohio Athletic Conference action Saturday afternoon.

Darlene Sheehan added 11 points and Bridget Jordan 10 for the Blue Streaks, who improved to 12-10 on the season and 7-9 in the OAC.

Muskingum, led by Amy Taylor's 15 points, fell to 11-11 and 7-9 OAC.

GIRLS BASKETBALL ROUNDUP

Defense difference for West

ROCKY RIVER — Elyria West allowed only five Rocky River points in the fourth quarter and rallied from a 25-17 halftime deficit to post a 50-40 win Saturday.

Hillary Rademacher had 17 points for Elyria West, which improved to 5-14 overall.

Rocky River (1-18) and Elyria West both play next on Wednesday when West hosts Oberlin and Rocky River travels to North Olmsted.

North Olmsted.....40

NORTH OLMSTED — Megan Chawansky scored 27 points to lead Avon Lake to an easy win over North Olmsted in Southwestern Conference play on Saturday. The victory assured the Shorelarks (16-2, 13-0) of sole possession of the SWC title.

Chawansky, the area's leading scorer at 22 points per game, scored 10 in the first quarter to help stake Avon Lake to a 14-4 advantage. The Eagles, outscored in every quarter, were led by Emily Burvis with 18 points.

Both teams conclude their conference schedule next Wednesday as Avon Lake hosts Bay and North Olmsted (9-8, 7-6) visits Rocky River.

PREP BASKETBALL NOTEBOOK

A LOOK at the record will tell you how big Elyria's victory over Admiral King was Friday night. It was just the sixth Pioneer win over the Admirals in the last 40 meetings dating back to the 1978-79 season. All of the Elyria wins have come at the Pioneer gym, but Friday's 80-61 win was the biggest in the last 40 games. Five times they've met at tournament time and Admiral King has won them all. ELYRIA HIGH has a chance to break another drought Friday night when Sandusky comes to town. The Pioneers haven't beaten the Blue Streaks since 1987, Keith Sooy's last year as Elyria coach.

KEYSTONE hasn't won a basketball championship since the 1965-66 season when the Wildcats tied with Avon the year the Eagles started their 60-game regular-season winning streak. Keystone did take a West Division crown when the Inland Conference had two divisions in 1985-86, but the Wildcats lost to Buckeye in the league title game WHEREVER MIDVIEW'S coach Ray Verba has been, school scoring records fall. Anthony Stacey became the fourth record setter Verba has coached at four different schools. Prior to becoming the boss of the Middies, Verba had Chip Winarski setting records at South Amherst prior to the school consolidating with Firelands. At Padua in the 1970s, Jimmy Smith set the scoring records while at Lourdes it was Matt Sparks' turn. "Somewhere along the way at each place, I've been blessed wherever I've been," said Verba. "Obviously, he's (Stacey) the best I've coached. Maybe somebody's been a better pure outside shooter, but when it comes to passing, rebounding and handling the ball, he's the best I've had overall."

ONE SEQUENCE under the Midview basket Friday was typical of Stacey's sterling career. Stacey tapped and batted the ball at the basket, keeping it alive until he gained control for the putback. It was the only time all night Midview missed more than one shot in a row. "He's so good at jumping, hitting the floor and going right back up," said Verba. "Whereas other people land and lose their balance. His reaction to the ball is great."

IT'S NEVER been easy for Southview's Larry Stark to accept losing, but he likes what he sees in his Saint squad despite its present 2-15 mark. "The kids have made it so that it's not as tough as it could be," said Stark after Friday's loss to Midview. "We've got some real good kids. It could be a lot tougher, believe me. You know how I hate losing. "As long as the kids can keep positive, they sort of keep me positive. I do see some improvements. That helps too."

TROY DUESLER of Avon will be out of action at least another week with a strained ankle suffered last week in the Elyria West game. He missed Friday's game at Oberlin.

SENIOR AL DRUMMOND of Lorain Catholic was sharp in nearly all facets of the game in the Spartans' 64-45 win Friday night over Elyria Catholic. Drummond made his first six shots, missed one, then closed out the game with four straight baskets to finish with 20 points. He also had six rebounds to share game honors with teammate Ron Martini, Keying LC's 25-17 edge on the boards.
