Westlake stands tall at final bell

WESTLAKE — Olmsted Falls and Westlake threw their best punches at each other for four quarters The punches didn't always connect, but they threw them and didn't back down.

Both teams were left standing at the end Westlake just happened to have a 67-64 lead when the last bell was rung

"I'm proud of the way our kids played the first-place team in the conference in their own place, Olmsted Falls coach Pat Donahue said. "They played well against a team everyone thinks is all-world"

The Bulldogs came close to knocking off the Southwestern Conference leader on the leader's floor. Neither team led by more than six points. Tim Matus burned a 3-pointer at 1:46 to give Falls a 64-63 lead and had two chances to get back the upper hand after Westlake's Zac Feibig hit two foul shots 11 seconds later.

"There was no turning point in a game like this," Donahue added. "I can't say this play or that play made the difference. We played well We moved the ball and our turnovers (15) were down from our last couple of games."

Westlake is now 10-2 in the SWC and 15-3 overall. A victory over Avon Lake tonight can clinch at least a tie for the conference championship. Olmsted Falls has a 6-6 SWC record and a 12-6 overall mark.

"Falls is an excellent team," Westlake coach Art Daniels said "We got what we expected from a team with 12 victories"

The Demons sealed the victory when the Bulldogs' Matt Taber, who led all scorers with 21 points, missed a 22-foot shot at the top of the key with four seconds to play. Westlake kept Falls from regaining the lead when Tim Schaefer missed a hook shot from the right side with 28 seconds left. Jason Hamann took down the rebound and Chris Hollick buried two at the free throw line at :19 to go.

Bret Fisher led four Demons in double figures with 17 points and tied Hamann for the team lead with eight rebounds. Hollick led Westlake with six assists

Schaefer had 14 points and eight boards for the Dogs. Nick Neumeister also scored 14 for Falls Matus added 12 points and five assists.

Westlake led for most of the first half, but fell behind by five points late in the second quarter as Falls went on an 11-2 tear. The Demons were just 6-of-18 from the field and 3-of-8 at the foul line in the second period

"We didn't play good team defense in the first half," Daniels said "That was the only adjustment we made at halftime. We needed to do that and be a bit more patient with our shots"

A 3-3 run late in the third got back the lead for Westlake. Falls was hurt by the absence of Matus in that stanza after he picked up his third foul early in the period.

Seven unanswered points in 1:14 of the fourth quarter erased the biggest lead for either team and gave the Bulldogs a one-point edge at 2:46 left The clubs traded baskets until Feibig's free throws proved decisive.

Taber and Matus combined for 17 of Falls' 20 points in the last period

Murray Ridge drops two

MENTOR — Murray Ridge School's adult men's basketball team fell to 5-5 with losses in its last two games

On Monday, the Raiders lost 59-53 to visiting Summit County Weaver. They also lost 78-52 at Cuyahoga County Warrensville Heights on Saturday.

Turnovers cost the Raiders Saturday, leading to too many easy baskets for the Rockets, who also held a decided height advantage.

Hector Lozano led Murray Ridge with 27 points Monday, including 13 in the opening quarter when the Raiders jumped out to a 17-8 lead. But a second-quarter cold spell turned the game around. Kurt Caris played well on defense for Murray Ridge with two blocked shots and six rebounds.
