

Defense, shooting spark Vermilion

NORTH RIDGEVILLE — Vermilion's stingy defense and patient, disciplined shot selection proved to be a deadly combination as the Sailors put away North Ridgeville 75-54 in an Erie Shore Conference game Friday night.

Careful shot selection has been the key so far this season for Vermilion, according to Sailor coach Bob Walsh.

"We again shot a high percentage of our shots," commented Walsh. "We usually try to pick our shots and we shoot close to 60 percent as a team all year. We're patient enough to get good looks at the basket. I tell my kids the offense will create shots; just stay with the offense."

North Ridgeville did its best to stay with Vermilion, falling behind by 10 at halftime, then scrapping back to within 50-44 with most of the fourth quarter left.

At this critical juncture of the game Ridgeville coach Dan Rademaker pointed to several defensive mistakes his team made that prevented them from getting any closer.

"We played fairly decent basketball the first half, but the second half we didn't play well defensively," he said. "They just broke our defense down. Then it just got out of hand."

Vermilion was then able to go on a 16-3 tear midway through the final quarter and was up, 66-47 with just over two minutes to play. Big baskets down the stretch from senior Ed Cyrek and junior Hubie Bartlett, who led the Sailors with 21 and 20 points, help push Vermilion to its seventh win in 10 outings this season. The Sailors stand at 3-1 in the ESC.

Rebounding, or lack of it, also contributed heavily to the Rangers' woes.

"We were just terrible on the boards tonight. Just not a very good effort tonight," lamented Rademaker, whose team drops to 1-9 and 1-3 in the ESC on the year.

Walsh had high praise for his senior point guard Brian Sheets, who, besides scoring eight points, played a magnificent floor game.

"Keeping him on the floor is key for us," said Walsh. "We're working real hard at telling him to eliminate the fouls that aren't good fouls. If we can keep him on the floor he is a major difference in both our offense and our defense. He doesn't throw in a lot of points but he knows his role and plays it very well."

The winners now turn their attention to two key ESC road

Olmsted Falls returns to winning ways

OLMSTED FALLS — Olmsted Falls Bulldogs shrugged off a lackluster first half to pull away from Bay 33-36 in Southwestern Conference play Friday.

The victory returned Olmsted Falls (9-1, 3-0) to form after its first setback of the season on Tuesday, when it lost to Strongsville, 68-60, the same day the Bulldogs were named the No. 3 team in Division II in the Associated Press' state poll.

Tim Schaefer led Friday's win with 19 points and 14 rebounds, followed by Matt Tabar's 17 points, including five 3-pointers.

Bob Miller led the Rockets (2-7, 2-4) with 16 points.

took it away and we started getting tentative again."

Wellington hit only one of 11 attempts in the first period and added just a single free throw in being overwhelmed by the Wolverines. Nate Crutcher caught fire, hitting everything but a couple of missed tip-ins in leading the way. Crutcher finished with 27 points, but had 19 by halftime and 11 in the first period.

The Dukes did play much better the second half, closing to within 49-35 with 3:18 to play in the third period after an eight point run spiced by Scott Boozer. Boozer, a 6-foot-2 transfer from Nordonia, started slowly but finished with 20 points, eight in the third period. Wes Chappell came off the bench to add 10.

West had good outings once again from Rob Woolbright and Dameron Mahone. Woolbright did the thankless tasks inside and finished with 17 points, Mahone 11.

This year's team has a chance to join the elite in Wolverine basketball history. In 1983-84, West finished 18-5 and shared the Erie Coast Conference title with Lorain Catholic. In 1977-78, West was 18-4, the best record in school history, but lost three to crosstown rival Elyria Catholic. Only in 1988-89 did West share a Lorain County basketball crown (Oberlin).

In the junior varsity contest, Wellington held off a late Wolverine rally to win, 65-56. Jason Martin had 21 points for the Dukes. Jermele Nolen 14 for West, now 5-6.

West completes the first half of Lorain County Conference play Friday when Oberlin invades. Oberlin, along with Firelands, are the only teams within two games of the Wolverines. Wellington hosts Brookside.

fectly that first quarter, " Sandusky coach John Schlessman said. "Although Martin got those spectacular slams that wowed the crowd, the kid who really hurt us was Brian Todd with all his put back baskets. Elyria murdered us inside."

Four of Todd's seven baskets were on rebound shots. He was one of four in double figures for Elyria in another balanced scoring effort.

Elyria, which shot 50 percent from the field, is now 3-1 in the Erie Shore and 4-5 overall. Sandusky, shooting only 33 percent, fell to 3-2 in the conference and 3-6 overall. Tonight's Elyria foe, Vermilion is also 3-1 in the league and 7-3 overall.

In the junior varsity game a big Pioneer rally in the final few minutes fell just short, 60-57.
