

Amherst rally sinks Westlake

WESTLAKE — What could Amherst have done better in the last 8:03 of Friday's 63-53 victory over Westlake?

Not a whole lot. The Comets hit 10 of their last 11 field goal attempts and all nine of their final free throw tries. They bothered the Demons into seven turnovers while committing only three of their own and held the same 7-3 advantage in the rebounding department.

Amherst found itself behind 43-30 with 10 seconds to go in the third quarter and the Demons holding possession. Chris White stole the ball from Westlake's Kyle Blue in the backcourt, hit the layup, got fouled and sank the free throw with no time remaining.

"What I think happened was we finally got some shots to fall," Amherst coach Dave Zvara said. "That shifted the momentum. We didn't have the intensity in the third quarter."

White had the intensity. He scored 16 of his 19 points in Amherst's 33-10 run to overtake the Demons. White canned two 3-point goals and bagged all five of his free throws.

The Comets are 6-1 in the Southwestern Conference, a half-game behind first-place Olmsted Falls. Westlake is 4-3 in the SWC and 7-5 in all games.

flat," Westlake coach Art Daniels said. "Then White stepped up and led the charge for them. He and Scott Roth, who was in foul trouble for most of the game, and Ray Diedrick had great fourth quarters and we didn't respond."

Roth scored nine points in the fourth quarter and Diedrick added eight, which included a pair of 3-pointers. That trio did all the scoring for Amherst in the last period.

"This was two good teams, two identical teams," Zvara said. "We were lucky to have a few kids step up in the fourth."

The score was tied at 18-18 before Westlake went on a 7-2 run to close the first half. The Demons outscored Amherst 7-2 to begin the third stanza and open a 10-point lead 2:20 into the second half. A basket off a steal by Blue with 1:11 left in the third gave Westlake its 13-point cushion as the Demons were 8-of-9 from the field in that quarter.

points in the last frame. Roth's three-point play with 3:14 to go gave the Comets the lead for good. Two freebies by White with 55 seconds left lifted Amherst to a nine-point advantage.

The Comets finished the game hitting 23 of 48 field goal attempts. Westlake was 20-of-43 from the field. Blue and Tasir Yamin led the Demons with 16 points each.

Olmsted Falls stays unbeaten in SWC

OLMSTED FALLS — The Bulldogs needed a big fourth quarter to pull away from pesky Fairview, 61-46, in Southwestern Conference play Friday.

The win kept Olmsted Falls (10-1, 6-0) undefeated atop the SWC, while the Warriors dipped to 4-7, 2-5.

Tim Schaefer led the Bulldogs with 18 points and seven rebounds, followed by Tim Manus' 13 points. Bob Rosol of Fairview led all scorers with 20 points.

Olmsted Falls visits Avon Lake Tuesday. Fairview hosts Westlake next Friday.
