

Baker misses 300, but wins Delco

Tom Baker opened with nine consecutive strikes Saturday, winning the AC Delco Classic in Lakewood, Calif. for his first PBA victory in 10 years. Baker, who is from Buffalo, N.Y., beat Bob Learn Jr. of Erie, Pa., 278-247. It was the eighth title for the 41-year-old who hadn't won since Rochester in 1986. Baker, who was perfect until leaving the 10-pin in the 10th frame, used a newly drilled ball Saturday after the ball he had used in match play the day before was accidentally shipped to Las Vegas, the next stop on the PBA Tour.

Baker

"When it wasn't there I started to panic a little bit," Baker said. "Maybe they did me a favor by taking the ball."

Baseball: Jacobs claims big loss

Indians owner Richard Jacobs said he has lost $40 million since he purchased the club for $45 million in 1990. Last year's AL champions turned a profit of only $2.5 million, he said. And despite already having sold out every home game at Jacobs Field, Jacobs claimed the club will only make about $3 million this year.

Mark Sauer will remain as president of the Pittsburgh Pirates but will relinquish control of daily operations in a front-office reorganization by new owner Kevin McClatchy. McClatchy will oversee daily operations, including marketing, advertising and baseball decisions.

Boxing: Douglas makes donation

Former heavyweight boxing champion James "Buster" Douglas has donated about $25,000 to create a computer training lab at a recreation center in his Ohio hometown of Columbus. Douglas donated eight personal computers, loaded with educational software, to the center named in the memory of his mother, Lula Pearl Douglas.

Former champion Jeff Fenech stopped American Mike Juarez in the second round of their scheduled 10-round bout Saturday in Melbourne, Australia to advance his comeback bid.

Indiana has joined at least 10 other states in requiring professional fighters to be tested for the virus that causes AIDS before they're allowed to compete.

Ireland's Steve Collins retained his WBO super-middleweight title Saturday, stopping challenger Neville Brown of Britain in the 11th round in Millstreet, Ireland.

A funeral service will be held tonight for Murray Goodman, a boxing writer who became a one of the sport's leading publicists.

Hockey: Bombers may have new home

The Dayton Bombers of the East Coast Hockey League have reached a tentative agreement to play at Wright State University's Ervin J. Nutter Center next season. The Bombers have played at Hara Arena the last five seasons but have said they will not return.

Football: Baltimore Railers?

Add two more possibilities the city's new NFL team has come up with for a new name: the Railers and Steamers. The names solicited from the B&O Museum last week grew out of the city's roots as the birthplace of the American railroad.

The new names join older suggestions: the Bombers, a reference to the bombers built during World War II by the predecessor to the Lockheed Martin Corp.; the Marauders, for a B-26 that was one of the best-known planes built by the company; and The Ravens, after the Edgar Allen Poe poem "The Raven." Poe died and was buried in Baltimore.

A former player with the Indianapolis Colts was arrested for allegedly punching a motorist in the face on the Ohio Turnpike in north-central Ohio near Clyde. Travis Davis, 27, of Okemos, Mich., apparently became upset as traffic backed up because of construction, got out of his car, walked over to Larry Gonyer's truck, struck the driver and then left. Gonyer said he was injured but refused medical treatment.

Tennis: Ivanisevic in finals again

Goran Ivanisevic defeated Guillaume Raoux of France 6-4, 6-4 in the semifinals of the ABN AMRO indoor tournament Saturday in Rotterdam and moved into the title match against Russian Yevgeny Kafelnikov. Ivanisevic, ranked No. 6 in the world, will be in his sixth ATP final of the season, only 10 weeks old.

Misc.: Brundie uninjured

British driver Martin Brundie walked away unscathed from a spectacular high-speed accident today that forced officials to halt the Australian Grand Prix before the first lap had been completed.
