Feierabend, Fox lead Middies past Clippers

DENNIS M. BALZER

Morning Journal Correspondent

GRAFTON — Last night's game between the Midview Middies and the Clearview Clippers was a showcase of the two teams that have won the Lorain County Conference crown the past two years.

Midview, which won the LCC two years ago, used the one-two punch of Aaron Fox and Ryan Feierabend to turn back the Clippers 59-52 and up their record to 4-3 in the LCC. The loss dropped Clearview to a disappointing 2-5 as the first half of the season comes to a close.

Both teams are 5-3 overall. "When these two teams hook up you just don't know what is going to happen," Midview coach Troy DiFranco said. "They put us in a hole in that first quarter, but the credit has to go to our team for the comeback that they made to win this game."

The Clippers built a 12-7 lead in that first quarter with Louis

Thomas and Walter Thornton combining to score seven points. But after getting shut out in the first quarter, Midviews' Feierabend was beginning to make his presence known.

The six-foot-two sophomore post scored 11 of his teams' 17 second-quarter points, which enabled the Middies to stay within five-points of the Clippers, who went into the intermission nursing a 29-24 lead.

"Give the rest of the team credit as well," DiFranco said. "They sensed that he (Feierabend) had the hot hand and they started to look to him for our scoring, which shows the unselfishness that this team exudes."

After Geno Ruiz scored the opening bucket of the second half, the Middies found a new kid on the block that was going to handle the affairs of their third-quarter business.

Fox picked up right where Feierabend left off as he scored 10 of his teams' 18 third-quarter points, allowing the Middies to take a 42-38 lead going into the final eight minutes of play. Feierabend didn't exactly stop scoring. He hit for six-points himself as the dynamic duo scored 16 of the teams' 18 points.

"Those two scored at will tonight," Clearview coach John Szalay said. "They are two very good players and we could not find a way to stop them."

The Middies showed that they could play defense as well as, limiting the Clippers to nine third-quarter points. That proved to be the difference in this contest.

"I think we became a little rattled," Szalay said. "We are a young team, and when they started hitting all those shots in that third quarter it took us out of our offensive game as well."

Fox ended the night with 23 points while Feierabend finished with 21 and gathered in 11 rebounds. The Clippers only managed to get one player in double figures as Chad Szalay hit for 15 points.

our kids," Brown said. "Those are the kinds of things that we work hard on in practice to be ready to execute on Friday nights."

Things looked bleak for the Falcons at that point but Firelands nearly came back from the dead by putting together a 13-2 run that was powered by eight points (two 3s) from sophomore Jared Born and a triple from Matt Stanley to cut the lead to 67-64 with just under a minute left.

Born would finish the game with 13 points, including three 3s. Dan Dohanos would also get into double digits for the Falcons getting 12 points. Firelands wouldn't get any closer as Oberlin hit 7-of-8 free throws in the final minute to hold off the Falcons. The Indians finished the game hitting 20 of 25 (80 percent) from the charity stripe.

"We've been in every single game this year with the exception of the Vermilion game," Firelands head coach Steve Lias said. "There were some stretches late in the game where we just couldn't turn the ball over and we did and it led to some easy baskets for Oberlin."

"I'm really proud of the effort by the kids. Every time we would make a run at them we would turn the ball over and we just couldn't get over the three-point barrier."

Wildcats hold off Eagles

AVON — With three seconds to play, Keystone's Jeremy Delewski iced the game with a key free throw as the Wildcats escaped a loss with a 63-60 win over Avon.

Keystone improved its record to 8-1 overall and 6-1 in the LCC. "This was a huge win on the road," Wildcats coach Greg Morgan said.

Delewski hit the first and missed the second to run out the clock. Delewski finished the game with 15 points, including three 3-pointers.

"Keystone really stepped up today," Eagle head coach Jim Baker said.

Brett Bartlett had an outstanding game. With 1:10 to go he hit a pair of free throws to put them up by five in the fourth. Bartlett went 8-of-8 from the free-throw line and finished with a game-high 23 points.

"Bartlett is Keystone's go-to guy. He's a great player because he makes everybody around him better," Baker said.

With :40 seconds to go, Avon's Jerome Walker became the go-to man as he hit a turnaround jumper to draw the Eagles within three.

But, Avon just couldn't find anybody to step up offensively. This was the deciding factor late in the fourth quarter. As the Eagles missed seven 3-pointers in the last two minutes of the game.

The Wildcats outbounded Avon when it counted, 12-6. They grabbed six more defensive rebounds than the Eagles, which was huge late.

The Wildcats trailed at half-time, 36-30, but quickly gained focus, outscoring the Eagles 19-10 in the third.

"We knew we could shoot our way back into the game if we could hold them down," Morgan said.

"In the first half was first time this year we stepped against a zone defense and shot well," Baker said.

Avon made a spectacular play to end the third quarter. With four seconds to go, Walker grabbed a rebound off a missed free throw and threw an outlet pass to Russ Logan, who canned a 3 from halfcourt as the buzzer sounded.

Avon's Walker had a good game despite the lack of playing time. Walker scored 10 of his 12 points in the first half and also grabbed a game high 12 rebounds for a double-double.

Adam DeChant scored 12 points, all in the second quarter. That was the only time DeChant would see action in the game, as he watched his team's record slip to 2-9 overall and 1-6 in the LCC.

Dukes' height too much for Cards to overcome

WELLINGTON — The Dukes took advantage of a small Brookside team and dominated the boards to pull out a 59-50 Lorain County Conference victory.

Wellington's trio of Josh Jameyson, Chris Schoonover and Dan Gundert combined for 26 of the Dukes' 38 rebounds. Jameyson led the way with 10, while Schoonover and Gundert both grabbed eight each. Schoonover led the Dukes in scoring with 13 points. Jameyson scored 11 while Gundert added nine.

"We got it inside," Wellington coach Jim Eibel said. "I think the key to the game was that we controlled the boards. We had a size advantage and tried to limit them to one shot."

"They took advantage of our weakness," Brookside coach Kevin Ciolek said. "We don't have much size and they went into their big guys."

The Dukes used their big frames to keep the Cardinals off of the boards as they outbounded Brookside 39-20.

"That's outstanding getting that kind of effort. We worked a lot on getting inside this week in practice," Eibel said. "We want to make sure that when the ball goes up it's our ball."

Wellington jumped out to an early 7-0 lead with five of those points coming from Gundert. Brookside then answered with a 9-0 run with Brian DeVito giving the Cardinals their first lead of the game at 9-7. DeVito scored 12 points for Brookside. Mark Reigelman led the Cardinals in scoring with 14.

"We tried to go to some of our strengths," Ciolek said. "Run up and down the floor and beat them up and down the floor and it worked for a little bit. We turned the ball over and took too many quick shots in that second and third quarter and that killed us."

Wellington took back the lead about half way through the second quarter at 20-19 and didn't relinquish the lead from then on. The Dukes went on to score 16 unanswered points and increase their lead to 30-19 on a score by Doug Varney.

"We've had a problem coming back from spurts this year," Eibel said. "We did a nice job that when we did get down we picked ourselves back up and got after it, which is what we need to do to win some basketball games. We have a test in

Varney scored 11 points on the night for the Dukes. Brookside scored only once for the rest of the half and trailed 30-21 at halftime.

"It was a great team effort," Eibel said. "The bench came off and did a nice job for us."

Brookside trailed by as many as 13 points in the fourth quarter. But the Cardinals didn't give up and pulled as close as four points. Brookside got a big boost when Mark Reigelman converted a three-point play after getting fouled and hitting the shot. It closed the gap to 52-48 with 1:31 left in the game. Brookside then trailed by just two points with 54.9 left, but Doug Varney got a three-point play of his own by converting the free throw. That proved to be the knockout blow as Wellington extended its lead to 55-50 and Brookside could not manage to score again.

"I'm very pleased with how hard our kids played," Ciolek said. "They played hard all of the way until the end of the buzzer. We just got to learn that in the second and third quarter we've got to take care of the basketball and do the little things that are going to get us the victory."

Sailors get second straight OHC win

VERMILION — After a disastrous second quarter, the Vermilion Sailors solved Mansfield Madison's press in the second half and outscored the Rams, 28-27, at the free throw line for a 69-65 Ohio Heartland Conference win last night.

The Sailors, now 5-6 overall and 2-5 in the league, held a 16-14 lead after one quarter but struggled in the second, causing 11 turnovers against the trapping Rams defense. In fact, neither team did much early on in the second as each committed four turnovers in the first two minutes.

But with the score tied at 20-20, Madison went on a 10-4 run to take a 30-24 halftime lead. Rams guard Kyle Pore did most of the damage with eight of those 10 points.

The second half, however, was a different story as Vermilion stormed out of the lockerroom with a 14-1 run that turned the six-point deficit into a 38-31 lead. The run started with a drive for two and a free throw from Jeff Mayer and ended with a fastbreak bucket against the press by Kyle Kotelf.

Junior post player Brennon Farley also did his part, scoring eight points in the quarter. He scored the Sailors' last six points of the third as Vermilion held a 48-40 lead.

In the fourth, the teams traded baskets — and free throws — as the fouls mounted. By the time the game ended, Farley had hit both ends of a double bonus with 14.2 seconds left and the two teams had combined for 70 free throws.
