BASKETBALL NOTEBOOK

FOR LONG-TIME Elyria High basketball fans, Friday's game at EHS may have reminded some of the high-scoring battle in 1968 when Admiral King defeated the Pioneers, 90-87, in overtime behind 41 points by Vic Guerrieri. Elyria was led that night by Harold Day's 31-point effort. Friday's 97-93 Elyria victory was the highest combined total (290) at Elyria's gym in memory. The Pioneers and Cleveland Heights combined for 195 in 1992 when Elyria outscored the Tigers, 103-92, at Heights. Assistant coach Phil Kuchta played on that team and remembered the Pioneers needed a police escort to get on the bus to leave Cleveland Heights that night. Kuchta scored 18 points that night. Brett Larrick had 32 and Jeremy Jones 21.

Elyria lost at Sandusky, 102-91, in 1993, in yet another high-scoring affair.

CLEARVIEW'S 600-seat gymnasium was filled for the conference showdown with Midview Tuesday. Each school got 300 tickets. Midview sold its allotment in 15 minutes Tuesday — at least half of it. The rest went to parents of the players.

A FAMILIAR FACE face was in the stands at Keystone High Tuesday night to watch the Wildcats play Avon.

It was Dennis Bartlett, former Keystone boys basketball coach now directing the Mansfield Madison team.

"I like to come back about once a year," Bartlett told the C-T. He brought his wife and son along.

How many times do you see a coach who has been gone ten years come back to see his old team play?

Barlett, fans may recall, was a star guard for Firelands during the Falcons' Golden Era in the 1970s. He was a teammate of present Firelands assistant coach Bill Dodd, who was Lorain County's Mr. Basketball in 1976.

After a very-successful 16-6 season last year, Bartlett is only 8-11 now in a rebuilding season.

MANZIE WILLIAMS, a superstar center for Lorain Southview in the mid-1970s, was one of the referees last Friday night in the jayvee game between host Wellington and Keystone.

He rushed from the gym to go to Avon Lake to see his son Manzie, a junior star for Olmsted Falls, score 14 in the Bulldogs victory.

CHANNEL 3 sportscaster Ron Jantz shared play-by-play duties on WEOL Tuesday. Jantz and WEOL's Tim Alcorn are Midview graduates. Jantz's cousin Mark Trenchard was part of the Grafton cable TV telecast. Trenchard starred for Midview's 1970 Lakeland Conference championship team.

SPREADING THE FOULS: Two Fridays ago against Firelands, Keystone's first six fouls were called against different players.
Last Friday night the first four were called against different Wildcats and five of the first six.

The game was unusual in that regard. There were lots of fouls called but nobody got into foul trouble. As late as the final minute of the game no player on either Keystone or Wellington had more than two fouls.

TODD HODKEY, Keystone's point guard, stole the ball from a Wellington player last Friday sand drove the length of the court for what he thought was going to be an easy layup. But a Wellington player in hot pursuit reached up and blocked his shot, causing some embarrassment to the Keystone player.

But Hodkey was fouled on the play and then canned a pair of free throws to get his two points anyway.

Cris Rader of Keystone also got another try to escape an embarrassment. Rader was fouled while in the act of shooting a trey as time ran out in the third quarter. But he missed all three free throws. In the fourth quarter, though, he was four for four, all in crucial spots during the last two minutes to help stymie Wellington's hopes.

ELYRIA HIGH'S Jayson Bendik made one of the smoothest moves to the basket seen all year Tuesday night when he fainted a pass but put up a lay-up instead. It had the crowd buzzing as the basket trimmed Mentor's lead to 63-57 with just under two minutes to play.
