Nothing goes right as Cards fall from unbeaten ranks

CHAMINADE-JULIENNE	56
#2 MENTOR	31

Berlin, Ohio — Mentor got a taste of the big time Monday afternoon at the prestigious Classic in the Country Showcase in the Perry Reese Jr. Community Center.

And the Cardinals, who entered the game unbeaten and ranked No. 2 in The Plain Dealer and 10th in the Division I state poll, left Berlin Hiland High School with a sour taste after a 56-31 loss to Dayton Chaminade-Julienne.

Forget that Chaminade-Julienne (13-0) won the Division II state title a year ago, is top-ranked in Division I this season and is rated No. 2 in USA Today's Super 25.

Mentor coach Mark Chicone did. Or at least tried to.

"I'm just disappointed in the way we played," Chicone said. "I thought we did a fairly decent job defensively, but you have to put both ends of the floor together. We didn't get it done offensively.

"I'm not commenting on 3-point shooting percentage or players creating things off ... you know, none of those things. I'm simply commenting on layups we missed, free throws we missed and opportunities around the basket we missed.

"If you can't do two of those three things, you ain't gonna beat anybody good and we did all three things bad."

Mentor (10-1), which shot 4-of-15 from the foul line, quickly fell behind, 13-0. Having 6-6 junior Megan Skouby saddled with two fouls less than 90 seconds into the game didn't help.

"That's part of the game and you've got to try to play through it," said Skouby.

Skouby led the Cardinals with 13 points and 14 rebounds before fouling out with 1:11 left in the game.

A 6-0 run by the Eagles, sparked by Aisha Jefferson's 5-foot jumper and putback bucket, stretched their lead to 26-11 near the end of the second quarter.

They pretty much sealed the deal midway through the third quarter after Mentor's 6-1 senior Sarah Smrdel picked up her third foul. Chaminade-Julienne showed a full-court press that resulted in two baskets off inbound passes.

Both were made by Jefferson and came off feeds after Lindsey Goldsberry made the steal. A 9-foot jumper by Maria Getty (20 points) and Jena Schafer's 3-pointer at the end of the third quarter increased the Eagles' lead to 42-24.

"I'm not saying we're at a point right now where we can beat Chaminade," Chicone said. "If we shoot 75-80 percent from the line, if we score 75 percent of our shots around the basket, and I'm talking about shots where we got an angle and a look ... we could have lost by twice the score and I would have been happy with our performance.

"But we're never going to win a district or win a regional game if we can't shoot foul shots, make layups and make good on opportunities we have around the basket. It's that simple."

Olmsted Falls loses late lead, falls in overtime

Tim Rogers
Plain Dealer Reporter

North Canton — Just as some victories are better than others, some losses really stink.

"I know, you are going to ask me how we lost that game," said Olmsted Falls coach Pat Donahue, a few minutes after his team had dropped an 80-74 overtime decision to Warren Harding on Monday in the last game of the Hoover Maytag Classic at Hoover High School.

Olmsted Falls (8-2) had the game won in regulation. The Bulldogs had a 65-61 lead and possession of the ball with just under 20 seconds to go.

"We just didn't take care of the basketball there at the end," said Donahue. "And we didn't make free throws. We just didn't get it done."

Warren Harding's Mario Manningham, an All-Ohio football wide receiver, tossed in about a 22-foot shot with less than one second remaining to send the game into overtime.

The Raiders (8-2) controlled the overtime behind the rebounding work of 6-5 Terrin Brown and by making 6 of 8 free throws in the final 1:50. Brown scored five of his 12 points and had three of his seven rebounds in the extra session. Manningham finished with 24 points, including seven in the fourth quarter.

Senior guard Steve Gansey led Olmsted Falls with 28 points and was in on every key possession when the Bulldogs seemingly took control over the final four minutes of regulation.

A Gansey 3-pointer from the corner near the Falls bench with 2:24 left produced a 60-53 lead. A little more than a minute later, he gave a great pass to junior Corey Sparks, which resulted in a layup and 62-57 lead.

With less than 45 seconds to go, Gansey rebounded a Harding miss and the Bulldogs scored again, taking a 65-59 lead with 32 seconds left.

Harding scored four straight points following Falls turnovers and a missed shot, and a Gansey free throw with 11.5 seconds remaining made it 66-63.

The game appeared over when Harding's Steve Williams missed a 3-point attempt, but he rebounded his miss and immediately called timeout with 3.4 seconds to go.

That enabled Harding coach Steve Arnold to set up a play. The Raiders ran it perfectly, springing Manningham loose on the left wing and the 6-2 guard drained the 3-point shot.

Wooster 68, Walsh Jesuit 53 Two scoring droughts cost the Warriors and prevented coach Frank Lupica from inching closer to the 400-victory plateau.

The Warriors (6-4) dug a hole by going scoreless during a span of 2:28 in the third quarter, falling behind, 45-33. Then, after reducing the deficit to 57-53, they failed to score over the final 2:50 and Wooster posted its eighth straight victory.

Junior Lawrence Jackson put together his seventh straight double-double with 10 points and a game-high 15 rebounds, and junior Mike Shea had 12 points and eight rebounds for Walsh.

Warrensville 54, Stow 53 Stow had a basket erased on a disputed traveling call with 3.3 seconds remaining and failed to get a shot off after getting the ball back on a turnover with 1.5 seconds left.

Junior guard Korey Spates hit two game-winning free throws with 37.3 seconds to go and finished with 24 points, almost half of Warrensville's total.

The Tigers, who got 11 rebounds from 6-5 Christopher Jones, led most of the first half. Stow, which led most of the second half, got 11 points, six rebounds and five assists from Brian Flaherty.

Sebring McKinley 51, Berlin Hiland 47 The state's fourth-ranked team in Division IV defeated the fifth-ranked team and remained undefeated when junior Matt Ferguson scored the go-ahead basket with 26 seconds to play in overtime.
