HIGH SCHOOL BOYS BASKETBALL

Irish outlast Vikings in overtime thriller

Eddie Dwyer
Plain Dealer Reporter

#1 SVSM 79
#25 VASJ 69

The Irish of St. Vincent-St. Mary and the Vikings of Villa Angela-St. Joseph are ranked No. 1 and No. 25, respectively, in The Plain Dealer's seven-county Top 25 poll.

But, as everyone in attendance at Viking Village Tuesday night witnessed, there isn't that much difference between the two squads.

The Irish, playing with the poise one associates with a top-ranked team, turned back VASJ, 79-69, in overtime in a nonleague boys basketball headliner.

SVSM, which got clutch play from senior guard Corey Jones and sophomore forward Marcus Johnson, and some solid minutes from its reserves, improved to 6-1. The Vikings, who were led by a game-high 33 points by their super sophomore, 6-5 David Lighty, slipped to 4-5.

"This is a type of game that you really can't measure until later in the season, when the tournament comes around," said Irish coach Dru Joyce. "It's great to win by 18 or 20 points. But these kind of games build character and make you a better team."

Neither team was lacking in character as the players tested each other's will through 32 minutes of regulation and the four-minute overtime.

SVSM, the defending Division II state champion, rode 14 points by senior point guard Brandon Weems and 13 points by junior post Lawrence Wilson to a 33-27 halftime lead.

The Irish had leads of 11 and eight points in the third quarter before VASJ, on the strength of two NBA-range 3-pointers by Lighty, closed to 53-49 entering the fourth quarter.

After a steal and a layup by Vikings junior guard Ron Hollis tied the score at 58 with 4:10 to go in regulation, Jones responded with his third 3-pointer for the Irish.

In the final 2:03 of the fourth quarter, SVSM moved to a 65-61 lead on two free throws by Jones and a driving one-hander down the lane by Johnson.

But, behind a basket by Lighty and some relentless play off the offensive glass by senior forward Jackie Chatman, VASJ knotted the score at 65 with 26 seconds remaining in regulation.

The teams headed for overtime after Jones' 3-point attempt rimmed out with one second left in the fourth quarter.

With both of its big men — Wilson and 6-6 senior forward Preston Sims — having fouled out, SVSM showed its depth in overtime. Wilson finished with 24 points.

Keeping their composure, the Irish pulled away on another 3-pointer by Jones, three clutch free throws by reserve guard Treymaine Danzy, a layup by Johnson off an assist by Jones and five big free throws and a key offensive rebound by Johnson.

"Our kids put a lot into this game, a lot of focus, a lot of preparation," said VASJ head coach Dave Wojciechowski, a former standout in basketball for the Vikings. "It was a heck of a game. Although the record doesn't indicate it, I think you can see we have a pretty solid team."

PLAIN DEALER TOP 25 WRESTLING

1. St. Edward, 6-0: Shawn Harris (103 pounds) and Sean Nemec (130) are outstanding freshman wrestlers. Eagles need senior state place winner Ryan Adkins (189) healthy and back in the lineup.
2. Walsh Jesuit, 3-1: Speaking of outstanding 189-pounders, how about Warriors senior Jake Glover? He is tough and smart, and looking like state champ material.
3. Mayfield, 7-0: Wildcats coach Frank Cikach says they're the best public school in the state . . . and he could be right.
4. Wadsworth, 6-2: These guys hung tough with St. Edward at the Ohio Duals right after winning a thriller against Massillon Perry. In other sports, you get time to savor a great emotional victory.
5. Mentor, 1-1: Nobody has ever torn the Brecksville Tournament apart with pinning power displayed by Payton O'Brien (152), but teammate Paul Burger (215) won the toughest weight class.
6. Kenston, 3-3: We think Nick Rendinell (140) and Tierro Davis (152) are very underrated wrestlers. They could both surprise at state.
7. Solon, 3-0: What a sport, this wrestling. Brad Kleinman (119) wins the brutal Powerade Tournament, and four days later loses a 4-2 decision to Padua state champ Pat McLemore. It keeps you humble.
8. Garfield Hts., 3-2: With Brad Bugara (119), Marcus Effner (145) and Justin Dobies (189), this team will place very high at state in Division I.
9. Strongsville, 9-0: Good fourth-place showing at Brecksville. The Mustangs don't have a single weak weight class.
10. Chanel, 2-2: Why is wrestling so great in Northeast Ohio? It's because of coaches like Graham Coghill.
11. Padua, 7-2: Shane Friery (125) looks like a happy camper at Padua. The Bruins' gain, and St. Ed's loss.
12. Olmsted Falls, 7-1: Who has more hair, coach Bill McGrain or his son, Zach, a fine 160-pounder? Or should we ask, who once had more hair?
13. Elyria, 2-1: Edinboro University probably doesn't realize what a great wrestler it's recruited in Andrew Perez (119).
14. St. Vincent-St. Mary, 0-0: What's the name of that tanning parlor coaches Chris DeShon and Sonny Marchette frequent?
15. Ravenna, 7-0: Boy, did we miss the boat with this team. Until now, the Ravens slipped through the cracks. What a dynamite one-two lightweight punch in Madison Davis (103) and Matt Reedy (112).
16. University School, 4-2: Unknown talents like Adam Kriwinsky (112) and Andrew Zeiser (145) besides state champ Chris Tripp make the Preppers a rising mat power.
17. Berea, 2-0: Only a handful of Braves competed last week in the Wadsworth Tournament. Dan Jonhenry (171) was second to Grizzlies' state runner-up Adam Melton.
18. Madison, 3-0: This team needs to get healthy.
19. Aurora, 0-2: Coach Dick Bliss had to be happy with Jordan Ohman's second-place finish at 140 in the Wadsworth Tournament.
20. Highland, 4-0: Congrats to the Division II winner at the Medina Tournament, and 215-pound champ Dan Thoburn.
21. North Royalton, 9-1: Two champs at the Southview Tournament in Jesse Oberdove (130) and Rich Norris (135).
22. Cloverleaf, 12-4: Colts junior Luke Steidl (171) has to be related to former Medina and Cleveland State star Les Steidl.
23. Normandy, 4-1: Won the Kalin Duals on criteria, with greatest number of pins.
24. Parma, 2-0: Rick Guthrie (130) reached the finals of the Kenston Tournament and then found out why Jordan Lipp of Beachwood is a state champ.
25. Nordonia, 11-3: Welcome to the Top 25. Talents like Gino Russo (152) and Lenny Trusnik (215) should keep you in this poll.
