ELYRIA — Valley Forge flattened Elyria 56-15 in Lake Erie League wrestling action Friday night.

The Patriots logged eight falls, winning 11 of the 12 matches wrestled. Valley Forge improved to 11-5 on the year, 8-2 in league action.

Senior Rich Healy managed Elyria's lone victory, prevailing 14-7 at 145 pounds.

"We got chewed up," said Elyria coach Erik Burnett. "I'm not making excuses, but we're a very young team. Tonight we were finding ways to lose. Our heart was there, but it wasn't the smartest wrestling I've ever seen."

Healy held an 8-2 advantage when he was reversed to his back by Patriot senior Jon Tarnai with one minute remaining in the match. Tarnai, now 15-9, kicked Healy out for a 9-7 Elyria lead. With 10 ticks on the clock, Healy nailed a takedown and three near-fall points to secure the win. Healy improved to 15-7.

Valley Forge dominated the rest of the action as freshman Glenn Anderson (103), junior Greg Tarnai (112) and seniors Mario Mucurio (125) Dave Shierbaum (171) and Tom Sarges (189) needed less than two minutes to dispose of their opponents.

Senior Larry Shiever (130), freshman John Staurou (140) and senior heavyweight Joe Olszewski earned second-period falls.

It was Senior Night for Healy, Curtis Helm, Jack Gillespie and Tim Bradley.

The Pioneers concluded their dual-meet season at 5-6, 4-5 in the LEL.

ELYRIA — Silver Anniversary.

The Elyria High state wrestling championship team was honored in pre-match ceremonies Friday night in the Pioneer gym. The 1973 Pioneer grapplers remaim Lorain County's only wrestling state championship team.

"It's hard to believe it's been 25 years," said former Elyria coach Bill Pierson. "It seems like just yesterday that six of us sat huddled in a corner of St. John Arena watching two kids wrestle. The outcome was favorable and we won the championship."

Elyria nipped Akron Garfield 36-34.

Jim Westbrook assisted Pierson. Ricky Lewis led Elyria, claiming the 126-pound title. Larry Beal placed third at 155. Kenny Redd was fourth at 98 while Mike Sittinger earned a sixth at 145.

Also on the team were Bill Marsh, Gene Madison, Todd Shoemaker, Darryl Aspey, John McKittrick, Ed Holmen, Mark VanDyke, Brian Gallagher, Scott Weiser and Dave Lennon.

The team was enshrined in the Lorain County Wrestling Hall of Fame in 1993.

In attendance was Russ Doan, who began the Elyria wrestling program in 1959 and served as athletic director from 1955-1979. "We were the first school in Lorain County to wrestle. The late Frank Fiore was the coach," said Doan.

FAIRVIEW PARK — The Pirates overcame a 23-2 deficit after the first quarter to retain their share of the SWC lead.

Jeff Peate led Rocky River with 18 points — including four 3-pointers. Mike Woodward and Bob Clutterbuck added 17 and 14, respectively. Woodward scored 10 of his points in the fourth quarter when the winners outscored the Warriors 27-9.

Dusty Morris of Fairview took game-high scoring honors with 21 points — including 14 in the hosts' big first quarter when they jumped out to a 13-0 start. Scott Stark contributed 10 for the Warriors.

The Pirates (12-1 SWC, 17-2 overall) will host North Olmsted next Friday night. Fairview (7-6 SWC, 12 7 overall) will travel to Amherst the same night.

ROCKY RIVER — The Longhorns won the MAC-8 championship with this 31-point victory in which they outscored Beachwood in every quarter.

Lutheran West's last league title came two years ago when the Longhorns left the tournament trail with a 19-4 record following a Division III district semifinal loss to Bedford Chanel. Lutheran West is ranked 10th in the latest poll.

Brad Petrigala's game-high 25 points paced the winners. Team scoring leader Phil Argento played more of the point guard role and had 11 assists to go along with his 13 points.

The Longhorns (13-1 MAC-8, 16 2 overall) will travel to North Olmsted Tuesday.

MIDVIEW

From D1

Meantime, Crawford, a 6-foot junior, scored 21 points of his own as Midview improved to 12-6, 10-2 LCC. The Middies own a two-game lead over Keystone with two conference games to play. The two teams meet next Friday night at Keystone and each has an LCC game on Tuesday.

The defeat eliminates Avon (10-7, 7-5 LCC) from title contention

Part of Vega's problem was that neither he nor any of his teammates could buy a basket the first half. While Vega was going 0-for-13 from the floor, the Eagles as a team were shooting only 6-of-31 from the floor, barely 19 percent

Midview took advantage of the missed shots and generally wiped Avon out on the boards, 39-24.

Troy DiFranco, Midview's first-year head coach, was a happy man.

"It feels good," DiFranco said. "I'm so proud of these kids. They deserve every bit of it. They're battling every day, they're hungry and they want it.

"We wanted to do two things. We wanted to attack offensively and we wanted to get them into foul trouble. We did both."

Indeed. Vega picked up his second personal bare a minute and a half into the game and he, Scott O'Malley and Christian Wimmer each finished with four fouls.

"First Crawford stops Mills, then he did a great job on Steve tonight," said DiFranco. "But I give a lot of credit to the rest of the team, because when he got by Kyle, somebody would step in a give up their body.

"I challenged them before the game. We said we were going to start man-to-man and didn't want to have to go into any funny defense.

NOTEBOOK

JEFF CORNUTE'S 32-point performance for Elyria Friday at Valley Forge puts him just two points shy of 400 for the season There have been only 16 other Pioneers to hit 400 or more points in a season, headed by Brett Larrick's 551 in 1992-93 and 531 in 1991-92 Of note, Richard Montague Sr , the father of Richard Jr., a sophomore on this year's team, was the only other Elyria High player to score over 500 in a year when he had 516 in 1976-77

ELYRIA CATHOLIC'S Matt Wilhelm and Kevin Miglich were simply awesome on offense Friday night at Cleveland Central Catholic. Both had season-high scoring games, 30 for Wilhelm and 24 for Miglich Matt was 13 of 20 from the field and 4 of 4 at the line while Kevin was 9 of 14 from the field with no free throw attempts. R C Clapham also played well on offense for the Panthers with 18 points

DEFENSE has been a problem at times this year for Elyria Catholic The Panthers gave up 93 against Oberlin and 92 against Chanel earlier in the season, and then allowed 96 Friday night at Cleveland Central Catholic

MATT DILLON is no longer a U S Marshall in Dodge City A senior member of Cleveland Central Catholic's basketball team is named "Marshall Dillon"

SHORTAGE of manpower was evident for Cleveland Central in the junior varsity game with Elyria Catholic Friday night The Ironmen jayvees had only six players suited up for the game The other players either quit the squad are became academically ineligible

ELYRIA CATHOLIC basketball games have a different look with a new scorer's table on the south side of the court The table, similar to the one Elyria High acquired a couple of years ago, was a gift from the school's Dads Booster Club The table was used first on Feb 7 for the Lorain Catholic game
