DISTRICT WRESTLING

St. Ed looks strong despite two setbacks

From staff reports

St. Edward is on the road to another Division I state wrestling title next weekend in Columbus, but nobody said there wouldn't be a small bump or two along the way.

Last night, 12 St. Ed wrestlers advanced to the semifinals of the Mentor District tournament. That group includes two juniors who have battled injuries of late, 125-pounder Albert Madsen and 171-pounder Vince DiDona.

Madsen held off Anthony Wayne's Justin McCulloch, 9-6, in his quarterfinal match. Madsen tweaked his back a couple of weeks ago but said he's feeling no effects. "I'm 100 percent," he said.

DiDona (22-5) looked strong in a 14-4 quarterfinal dispatching of Willoughby South's D.J. Delande. The South senior was 19-1 entering the match.

St. Ed senior Charlie Agozzino, one Eagle who was expected to make the semifinals, didn't. Riverside's Eric Lakia knocked him into the 140-pound wrestlebacks with one of the most dramatic upsets of the night, engineering a reversal with two seconds left for a 10-8 win. Lakia, also a senior, improved to 40-3.

Glenville junior heavyweight Fred Johnson pulled off one of the night's other surprises when he persevered, 3-2, in a first-round match against St. Edward's Kevin Quinn.

Johnson later was sent to the wrestlebacks himself when St. Ignatius' Ray Rowe pinned him in 35 seconds.

"I'm trying to win for my uncle, Mike Johnson," Johnson said. "We lost him on Christmas Eve to a heart attack. . . . I'm dedicating the rest of the season to him."

Johnson decided to do that because his late uncle was a major reason he's where he is today. Uncle Mike was a Tarblooder wrestler himself, qualifying for state under then and current Glenville coach Gregory Dotson as a heavyweight in 1992. Mike started working with his nephew when Fred was a freshman, and he rarely missed a match until diabetes started to take its toll.

Mike suffered the fatal heart attack before he saw his 31st birthday. Yesterday, his words of wisdom were still playing through Fred's mind.

"He told me to always watch out for all the stalling [opponents] will do, because I'm big," Johnson said. "And he told me not to let things get to me.

"That's all we talked about was wrestling. All he dreamed about was me getting downstate. I've got to do it for him."

Johnson and Quinn (28-11) worked each other over slowly for six-plus minutes, and the score was 2-2 before Johnson won on a penalty point. Johnson entered the match with a 35-3 record.

Consolations and semifinals resume today at 9 a.m. The finals are scheduled for tonight at 7.

Bengals, Eagles meet to decide handicap title

From staff reports

Benedictine and North Olmsted will battle today to determine the handicap champion of the Greater Cleveland Interscholastic Bowling League. Benedictine won the Alpha Division on Feb. 15, and North Olmsted claimed the Beta championship after the final dual match the week before.

The Bengals finished at 92-48 after sweeping all seven points from Midpark. St. Edward finished second at 85-55.

North Olmsted's mark of 91-49 was eight points better than second-place St. Ignatius. The same two teams face off today to determine the scratch champion of the Beta Division. Entering the knockdown, the Eagles are at 103-37. The Wildcats are 98-42 and basically need to win all seven points.

Entering the Alpha scratch finale, Midpark (108-32) leads Parma by seven. The Redmen must win all seven points to tie and force a one-game rolloff.

Meeting reset: The Greater Akron Basketball Coaches Association has postponed its annual all-star meeting. Originally scheduled for today, it has been rescheduled for March 2 at 1 p.m. at Copley High.
