CAVALIERS 99, HEAT 89

Win eases hangover

Rick Noland
The Chronicle-Telegram

CLEVELAND — The Cavaliers could have used a bit stronger dose, but the chaser did its job.

One night after getting physically manhandled in Boston, Cleveland avoided a major hangover by returning to the friendly confines of Quicken Loans Arena and defeating the Miami Heat 99-89 on Saturday.

"We've responded great all year long after a loss," Cavaliers point guard Mo Williams said. "Tonight was no different. The mentality of this team is great."

The Cavaliers jumped to a 28-14 lead after the first period and led 40-20 midway through the second quarter, then took enough naps that Miami nearly came back and stole a win. Williams made sure that didn't happen, scoring 12 of his game-high 29 points in the fourth quarter to steal the show in a game billed as another showdown between Miami's Dwyane Wade and Cleveland's LeBron James, the league's top two scorers.

"I've never been a person that needed the spotlight," said Williams, who was 10-of-15 from the field, including 6-of-7 on 3-pointers. "I'm happy where I'm at right now. I'm the guy who's behind closed doors and will sneak up on you."

James, who had just five points after the first period, had a Jason Kidd-like triple-double with 14 points, 10 rebounds and 12 assists. He was 5-of-15 from the field, including 2-of-10 after the first period, and 4-of-7 at the line.

INDIANS: COMMENTARY

It's never too early to start worrying

Their big-name free-agent closer, who just happens to be injury-prone, has a bad back and hasn't pitched in an exhibition game.

Their best position player appeared in two games before a groin injury forced him out of the World Baseball Classic and has sidelined him since.

Their projected starting right fielder is playing in the WBC with a sore surgically repaired left elbow.

CHRIS ASSENHEIMER

One of their top offensive weapons, at least he used to be, is coming off shoulder surgery and just made his exhibition debut Friday.

A staple of the rotation since 2004 won't be available until at least June following Tommy John surgery, and who knows what he'll look like when he returns.

Their top prospect, who was expected to battle for a spot in the bullpen, has finger issues again.

Oh, and another one of their new relievers has been ill all spring and has yet to throw to live hitters.

Welcome to Indians spring training 2009 in Goodyear, Ariz. Wahoo, what a debut.

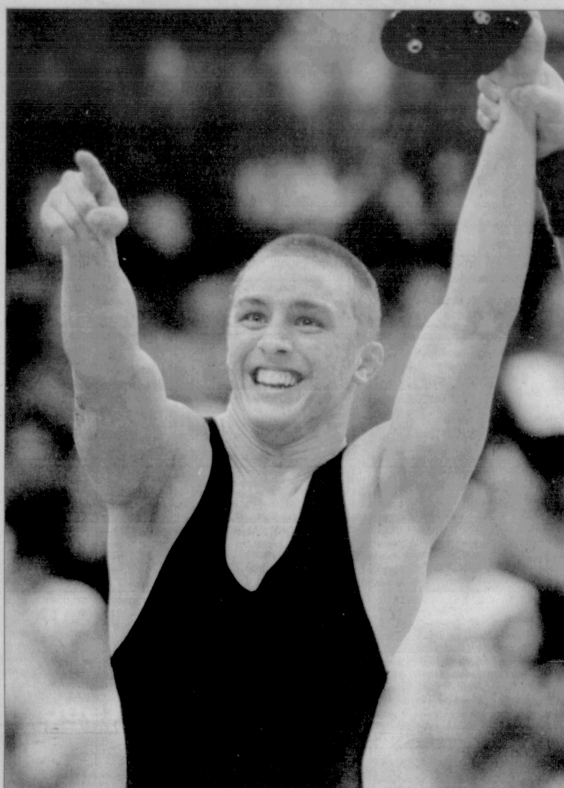

If it sounds as though nothing has gone right for the Indians since they checked into their new digs in the Valley of the Sun, it's because, well, nothing has.

Injuries have lightened the early portion of spring training, and that's no way to begin a Central Division title bid.

Yes, it's early — the regular season doesn't ...

THE TOURNAMENT TRAIL: STATE WRESTLING

Collin Palmer wins 4th title, joins Lance in family lore

Shawn Bennett
The Chronicle-Telegram

COLUMBUS — There was a look of determination as the opening whistle sounded, there were tears of joy at the match's conclusion and, finally, there was a smile from ear to ear on the championship podium.

Indeed, it was a special night as St. Edward senior Collin Palmer became Ohio's 18th four-time state champion during Saturday night's Division I finals.

Just three years after his brother Lance accomplished the feat, ...

STRONG FINISH: Elyria takes sixth place in Division I with four state placers.

"It's an awesome feeling," Palmer said. "It's probably one of the best feelings in the world because Lance and I became the only set of brothers to do it in Division I."

The Palmers became the third set of siblings to win four state titles, joining Jim and Jeff Jordan of St. Paris Graham and C.P. and Dustin Schlatter — who accomplished the feat at three different schools between them. Collin, who lives in Columbus Station, also becomes the third Lorain County wrestler to accomplish the feat, joining Lance and Oberlin's Erik Burnett.

"I don't think I was that nervous about who I was facing or the match itself," Collin said. "I think just going for my fourth ...

BOYS BASKETBALL: SECTIONAL

Falls gives King 1st 'L'

Tim Gebhardt
The Chronicle-Telegram

EATON TWP. — Playing without Chris Kimbro is one thing, but also missing Adrian Casey made it a whole different ballgame Saturday night for Admiral King.

The Admirals' 21-game unbeaten streak came to a crashing halt under a barrage of 3-pointers by Olmsted Falls and whistles from the officials. The Bulldogs (13-8) withstood a second-half rally to win, 80-77, to advance to Wednesday's district semifinal against North Ridgeville.

Falls cashed in on 11 of 18 3-pointers, six coming in the first quarter as the Bulldogs put Admiral King in a hole it couldn't quite escape. Casey was whistled for two fouls less than three minutes into the sectional final and picked up his third shortly after re-entering. ...
