FIELD HOCKEY

Blazers' Floyd signs to play for Duke

EDDIE DWYER
Plain Dealer Reporter

Hathaway Brown's Elizabeth Floyd, one of the most celebrated players in the history of Northeast Ohio field hockey, will further her education and field hockey career at Duke University.

Floyd

Floyd, The Plain Dealer's Player of the Year for 2002, signed a national letter of intent with the Blue Devils after considering Princeton, Boston College and Cornell.

"I am really excited," Floyd said. "The spirit at Duke is so special. It's a beautiful campus, and I am going to have the opportunity to play for one of the top field hockey coaches in America in Beth Bozman."

A four-year varsity mainstay, Floyd led HB to the state championship last fall. She scored a goal and assisted on one as the Blazers defeated Dayton Oakwood, 2-0, in the semifinals. Then, in an intense championship game, Floyd provided the only score as HB turned back three-time defending state champion Columbus Academy, 1-0, in double-overtime. It was Columbus Academy's first loss in 56 games.

The Blazers' most valuable player for 2002, Floyd scored 31 goals as HB finished with a school-best 19-0 record. She is a two-time first-team All-Ohio honoree and a two-time Plain Dealer All-Star.
