COLLEGE BASKETBALL

N.C. State wallops K-State

FROM WIRE REPORTS

NIT ROUNDUP

C.C. Harrison picked up North Carolina State with four second-half 3-pointers, and Kenny Inge had 13 points and 11 rebounds last night as the Wolfpack beat Kansas State, 59-39, in the first round of the NIT in Raleigh, N.C.

N.C. State advanced to second round of the 32-team tournament for the second straight season with a game-closing 22-6 run over the final 10:11. Kansas State had a season-low point total.

Harrison, the Wolfpack's leading scorer, had four points in the first half but finished with 20.

Georgia Tech 88, Seton Hall 78 — Freshman Dion Glover scored a season-high 33 points, and the Yellow Jackets started the second half with a 20-5 run en route to victory in Atlanta.

Georgia Tech had a season-best 15 3-pointers, one short of the school record.

Minnesota 77, Colorado State 65 — Sam Jacobson scored 20 points as the Golden Gophers ran away in the second half for a victory in Minneapolis.

Minnesota had a 9-0 run to open the second half and another 9-0 run a few minutes later to build a 68-48 lead with 8:25 left.

The Rams went nearly 10 minutes between field goals in the second half.

Penn State 82, Rider 68 — Pete Lisicky scored 20 points, and Calvin Booth blocked five shots as the Nittany Lions won in State College, Pa.

The Broncs used a stingy defense to confuse the Lions in building a 28-18 lead, but Penn State took control with five minutes left in the first half, outscoring Rider, 27-8, during the next 7:46.

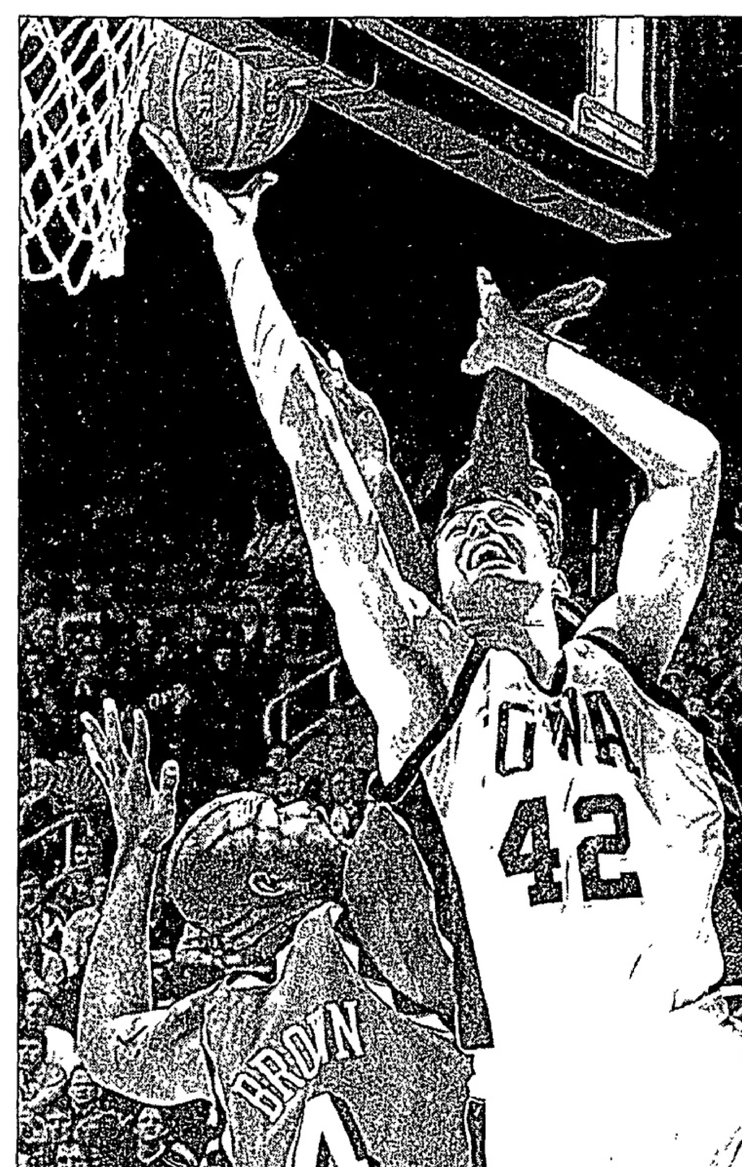

Georgia 100, Iowa 93 — Ray Harrison scored 22 points, and G.G. Smith had 18, including four 3-pointers, to help lead the hot-shooting Bulldogs to victory in Iowa City, Iowa.

Jumaine Jones finished with 14 points, Phenizee Ransom also had 14, a career high for Georgia. Ricky Davis scored 25 points for the Hawkeyes.

Dayton 95, Long Island 92 — The Flyers withstood a 45-point night by Charles Jones for a victory in Dayton.

The Blackbirds trailed by 17 points at halftime, but Jones scored 19 points in the first 11 minutes of the second half to close to 69-66 with 9:15 left.

Memphis 90, Ball State 67 — Keldrick Bradford scored a career-high 27 points, and Omar Sneed had 25 points and 17 rebounds as the Tigers rolled to victory in Memphis, Tenn.

Bradford's biggest contribution could have been his defense against the Cardinals' leading scorer, Bonzi Wells.

Wells had nine points, well under the senior's 23.3-point average. The total was a season low for the Mid-American Conference's all-time leading scorer.

Auburn 77, Southern Mississippi 62 — Sophomore Mamadou N'diaye scored a career-high 19 points, leading the host Tigers to their first postseason victory in 10 years.

It snapped a five-game losing streak and was the Tigers' first NIT victory in four appearances.

Alabama-Birmingham 93, Missouri 86 — Fred Williams scored a career-high 23 points as the Blazers won in Columbia, Mo.

The Tigers lost for the second time on its home court despite a career-high 29 points from John Woods, who hit eight 3-point field goals.

Vanderbilt 73, St. Bonaventure 61 — Dan Langhi scored 16 points off the bench for the Commodores, who nearly lost a 13-point lead before winning in Nashville, Tenn.

Vandy struggled with two starters out with injuries and playing in front of a a crowd of 2,311.

Georgetown 71, Florida 69 — Shernard Long hit a layup as time expired, giving the Hoyas a victory in Gainesville, Fla.

The Gators, who went on a 12-3 run to tie the game, had a chance to win with eight seconds left. But Georgetown's press caused senior Dan Williams to turn the ball over, leading to Long's uncontested layup. Long led the Hoyas with 28 points.

Marquette 80, Creighton 68 — Aaron Hutchins had 19 points and seven assists, leading the Golden Eagles to victory in Milwaukee.

The Bluejays' Rodney Buford led all scorers with 24 points.

Gonzaga 69, Wyoming 55 — Quentin Hall hit four consecutive 3-pointers in a 16-0 run that sparked the Bulldogs to victory in Laramie, Wyo.

Fresno State 73, Pacific 70 — Chris Herren scored three baskets down the stretch, including the go-ahead basket on a putback with 51 seconds left, and the Bulldogs won in Stockton, Calif.

Chippewa eliminates VASJ; Chagrin Falls marches on

By DON FRIEDMAN
PLAIN DEALER REPORTER

GIRLS BASKETBALL

ALLIANCE — Strange things happen in tournament basketball. They certainly did in Chippewa's 69-66 double-overtime upset of Villa Angela-St. Joseph in the Division III girls regional semifinals at Mount Union last night.

Chippewa (21-3) will play Chagrin Falls (25-0) Saturday at 1 p.m. for the regional championship and a trip to the state tournament at Ohio State.

Chagrin outlasted South Range, 59-48, in the first game last night.

Consider that Chippewa trailed VASJ throughout the game and was down, 48-39, after three quarters.

The Lady Chipps did not go to the foul line until the second overtime. When they did, they made all six free throws in the final 1:27. Senior Lori Ripplinger made the first four.

Chippewa's hero was 5-9 senior Beth Hajek, who made five 3-pointers. Her fourth one tied the score at 52 and sent the game into overtime. Her fifth one came with 21 seconds to play in the first overtime and put her team ahead, 59-57. VASJ's Karen Morth sent the game into the second overtime with one second left.

VASJ led by four points after one period, by eight at the half and by nine after three quarters.

Five Lady Chipps were in double figures. Hajek had 18 points, Sue Porter had 15, Amanda Gregory scored 12, Ripplinger had 11 and Sarah Petit scored 10.

The Lady Vikings outrebounded Chippewa, 43-33, with Petit grabbing 10 and Sarah Zdesar getting 10 for VASJ.

Chagrin Falls survived a scare in the first game, leading South Range, 38-31, at the half. The Lady Tigers saw South Range rally and take one-point leads twice in the final 2:06 of the third quarter. It took two baskets by 6-2 junior Mary Boles, her only points of the game, to bring Chagrin Falls from a point down to a 49-46 lead after three quarters.

Chagrin Falls outscored South Range, 10-2, in the fourth quarter, holding the ball for the final two minutes.

Seniors Trish Kruse and Katie Carson led Chagrin Falls. Carson had 16 points and 10 rebounds, and Kruse scored 16 points and passed for 10 assists.

"We lost our composure to their intensity," Chagrin Falls coach Frank Phillips said. "The tempo slowed down, and we don't like that.

"We won most of our games by 20 points, so we are not used to being in a game like this so late. The fourth quarter was a credit to Trish inside and our perimeter shooters. We picked it up and played at a higher level."

South Range coach Don Feren credited changing defenses consistently for staying with Chagrin Falls so long.

"Chagrin missed some shots, and we got it up and down the floor," Feren said. "That's our style.

"We got a little tired in the fourth quarter."

The Raiders were led by 6-1 senior Robin Thayer, who was second-team All-Ohio last year. Thayer led everyone with 21 points, 15 in the first half.

"They were more in my half in the second half," Thayer said. "We were more up and down the floor in the third quarter when we made our comeback."

Sharp-shooting Bluffton ends season for Clearview, 79-47

By JACK McDERMOTT
PLAIN DEALER REPORTER

GIRLS BASKETBALL

BUCYRUS, Ohio — Clearview's girls ran into a buzzsaw last night in their first-ever Division III regional basketball appearance, falling, 79-47, to Bluffton in a semifinal game.

The Lady Pirates (20-4) will meet Castalia Margaretta (20-4), a 64-50 winner last night over Patrick Henry, Saturday at 1:30 p.m. for the regional championship and a trip to the state finals in Columbus.

"When your opponent hits 11 of their first 12 shots, what can you do?" said Clearview coach Jim Horvath.

"Coming in, we had no idea what to expect. Their program has been to the regional level before. For us, this was uncharted water. Unfortunately, this wasn't one of our better defensive performances of the season. But then, we have not seen a team that could shoot as well as them, either."

With 5-9 sophomore Caity Matter leading the way with 12 of her game-high 29 points in the first quarter, the Lady Pirates took a 26-7 lead.

"We knew about Matter," Horvath said. "We had our two top defensive players guarding her, but she was unstoppable. To her credit, she just went out and got her points. There was no stopping her."

Matter's scoring dropped off a bit in the second period. But Bluffton was ready for the challenge, and 5-11 sophomore Tara Buroker stepped up and scored 11 of her total 18 points in the period to push the Lady Pirates to a 42-17 edge at the half.

"We knew about Matter," Horvath said, "but, Buroker caught us a little off guard."

Clearview's scoring leader, junior Layla Willis, picked up the Clippers attack in the third quarter, scoring 11 of her team-high 18 points in the third quarter. But it was too little too late for Clearview (20-5).

"Layla is a great player, but by that time, the hole was too deep," Horvath said.

After Willis scored on a layup to make it 53-30 with 2:42 remaining in the third quarter, the Lady Pirates ran off 11 points before Clearview senior Natalie Santos sank a 3-pointer at the buzzer to cut Bluffton's lead to 64-33 entering the final eight minutes.

"This was supposed to be a happy occassion, being our first trip to the regional, and all, but they spoiled it for us," Horvath said. "But, God bless them, they have got a great team, and I wish them nothing but the best of luck Saturday against Margaretta.

"As for us, I'm very proud of my entire team and the great season we have had. We're young, and I feel confident we'll be back here again soon. Four years ago, the group of seniors we had on this year's team played on a team that finished 0-20. We have come a long way. We'll be back."

LaVonne Davis, a 6-1 freshman, finished as the Clippers' second-leading scorer, with 10 points, and sophomore Kerri Tolvay scored six.
