Shoregals' McClung suffers torn ACL

From staff reports

Avon Lake's girls basketball team got good news and bad news yesterday on the playing status of 5-11 senior Laura McClung, the team's leading scorer and rebounder.

McClung was injured in the first quarter of Wednesday's Southwestern Conference finale against Olmsted Falls, won by the Shoregals, 53-45.

"The doctor has confirmed that she tore the [anterior cruciate ligament] in her right knee," McClung's father, Clyde, said last night of the bad news. "And, he said it's a significant injury. We're going to be meeting again with him Monday to go over the options, but as it stands right now, she may be able to play in the upcoming tournament."

The Shoregals play Firelands tomorrow at 5 p.m. in the Division II sectional-district tournament at St. Joseph Academy.

"As of right now, she's in rehabilitation, with the thought that she'll be given permission to rejoin the team sometime within the next 10 days," her father said.

Longhorns prevail: Lutheran West defeated Lakewood, 5-2, in a recent match that determined the champion of the Alpha Division in Handicap of the Greater Cleveland Interscholastic Bowling League. Lutheran West needed to win the final game and total pins to finish with a final record of 87-53, two points better that Lakewood. Bryan Burz anchored the Longhorns with a 246 in the deciding game, ending with a 667 series, high in the league for the day. Matt Trotto had 224-614 for Lakewood for the second-high series on a low-scoring day. Midpark won all seven points from Parma to tie Lakewood for second place.

Holy Name swept all seven points from North Olmsted to win the Beta Division Handicap title. The Green Wave ended at 82-58, and North Olmsted dropped to third place at 72-68. Westlake sneaked into second place at 76-64. Holy Name will meet Lutheran West on Saturday for the league Handicap championship.

In the Scratch races, Midpark leads Lutheran West by 19 points in Alpha, and North Olmsted leads Westlake by 14 in Beta.
