SCOUTING DISTRICT HOCKEY

When: 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. today.
Where: Brooklyn Recreation Center, 7600 Memphis. Call 216-351-2111.
Admission: $4.
Matchups: Shaker Heights (18-9-3) vs. University School (19-14-2) at 1 p.m., followed by Padua (31-3) vs. Lake Catholic (21-8).
What's at stake: A trip to next weekend's Final Four at Brooklyn Recreation Center against winners of Sylvania district.
Road to district finals: Shaker Heights defeated St. Ignatius, 3-1, and North Olmsted, 5-1. US defeated Mayfield, 6-0; Solon, 7-1; and St. Edward, 4-1. Padua defeated Brooklyn, 12-0; Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin, 11-0; and Gilmour, 6-0. Lake Catholic beat Hudson, 8-3; Euclid, 9-1; and Elyria Catholic, 3-2.
Outlook: Shaker Heights is the hottest team in the tournament. The Raiders peaked during the Baron Cup, winning their fourth straight Baron Cup title. Shaker Heights defeated US in the Baron Cup title game. The Preppers must find a way to stop a front line headed by Johnny Dingle and Carson Strang. The Lake Catholic Cougars are coming off an emotional win over Elyria Catholic, a team that defeated them twice during the season, and the Cougars will use that motivation against Padua, the No. 1 team in The Plain Dealer poll But the Bruins have no visible holes in their armor. Padua goalie Justin Wolf is air-tight, and Josh Coyle is smoother than ice.

Stiles is selected as Berkshire coach

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Mike Stiles, a former offensive coordinator at Hiram College, has been selected as Berkshire's football coach. Stiles, 32, will be recommended to the school board March 12, said Athletic Director Michelle Peters.

"He seems to be a real motivator, a go-getter, and that's the direction we need to take our football program," Peters said.

Stiles was the offensive coordinator at Hiram from 1998 through last season while he taught junior high English in Garrettsville. Peters said he would be hired as a teacher at Berkshire. Stiles previously was an assistant coach at Wooster, Coventry and Liberty high schools.

SOLD OUT — The final regular-season game of the boys basketball season is sold out.

All tickets for tomorrow's nonleague game between top-ranked St. Vincent-St. Mary and Central-Hower at James A. Rhodes Arena have been sold. Officials from both schools advise fans without tickets not to show up at the arena because there will be no gate sale.

FOOTBALL

Area linemen pick Cornell

Brecksville-Broadview Heights' Steve Thompson, who excelled as an offensive lineman for the Bees, and St. Ignatius standout defensive tackle Mike McGinty said they will further their educations and football careers at Cornell University.

Thompson, a 6-5, 290-pound guard-tackle, anchored the line as Brecksville advanced to the Division II playoffs and lost a hard-fought game to eventual state champion Olmsted Falls. A dominating blocker, Thompson graded out at better than 90 percent. He was not whistled for a penalty in the Bees' 12 games last season and earned All-Pioneer Conference, all-county and all-district recognition.

McGinty, a two-year starter and an all-district and all-county honoree, helped the Wildcats to their eighth Division I state title in 1999 and their 10th consecutive regional-final appearance last season.

The 6-3, 240-pound McGinty made 48 solo tackles last season, assisted on 32, had seven sacks and an interception.
